It's a very special experience going to Jones and Co. Treated as an individual who matters to them, never rushed, nothing is too much trouble... not many achieve that kind of service and they do it every time. Add in the wonderful frames they have that are so different and stylish and I'm going nowhere else. Go and see them if you want your glasses to be part of your style and not just something that helps you see.

Step inside and Explore a Unique Experience like no other ! I travelled up from Ashbourne, looking far and wide for an optician that could offer more than the "routine" of purchasing new glasses. The building you enter to access the opticians is unique and I experienced a friendly welcome. This is the beginning of a relationship rather than a purchase. I purchase glasses infrequently, taking my time to locate frames that work with my personality and stage of life. Travelling to Jones and Co is absolutely worth the travel, and the time to be fitted with the glasses that are unique, also provide you with the time to really make the decision that is right for you. Be prepared to come and experience the reception, the experience, and the opportunity to find a unique set of frames that reflect the person you are and want to be. I will update my review when I collect my specs! in 3 weeks, but I want to thank Gareth for brining out my inner "playful" side through my choice of specs!. And to the lady (sorry didn't get your name) who kindly helped with my decision making. I looking forward to writing up my review for part 2. Thank you Amanda

Outstanding customer focused service. Everyone I have dealt with has filled me with confidence. They listen to even the vaguest ideas and come up with perfect suggestions for what frames might work (and what won't). I hate being overwhelmed with choice - this doesn't happen at Jones and Co and is exactly what makes it such a special place. I now have two pairs of completely contrasting Theo frames - both look fab! I can't recommend Jones and Co highly enough.

Went to Jones and Co after year of using this High Street Opticians and the experience could not be more different. From the eye test which was more thorough to staff actually taking the time to advise on frame styles and lenses which would be most suitable. I love my new glasses and the quality of the varifocals is a lot better. Thanks to everyone at Jones and Co

Three things you do only at Jones & Co

- 1 Get a new pair of glasses even when you don't need one
- 2 Drop in for a quick chat because they're nice people
3. Actually recommend your optician to somebody else

Just collected my new spectacles from Jones & Co. today. Excellent service from everyone I met: a special mention for Nick - warm and friendly with an uncanny ability to find just the right frames for the person in front of him. Throw in a range of gorgeous eyewear and good coffee - what more could anyone want? Seriously, if you're ready to invest in eyewear that stands out from the crowd, you must visit Jones & Co. Highly recommended by a delighted client.

Can't recommend this opticians enough, both in terms of the quality of the service I received and the amazing glasses I have just bought. The staff were really attentive and spent a significant amount of time listening to what I wanted and then showing me a wide range of choices. Nothing run of the mill, all bespoke and unique. Gareth was really lovely and reassuring. I always find it a bit of a gamble when choosing the right shape, as I'm very short sighted and always struggle to get an accurate impression of what I will look like. He filmed each frame I tried, which really helped me come to a decision. Having just had a bad experience of dealing with a major chain who failed to provide the right prescription and compatible lenses twice. Can only sing Jones and Co's praises. One additional benefit of going there is being able to pay in installments, which makes their glasses accessible to all. Love them !!

I can't recommend Jones and Co highly enough. The experience is poles apart from normal high street opticians. I've been wearing glasses since childhood and so have seen my fair share of opticians. The eye test is thorough and high tech (so no air being pumped into your eye) and the way in which you look at and choose your glasses is just transformative. The staff are professional and approachable- the experience was phenomenal

Jones and Co are excellent opticians. I have just received my second pair of glasses from them and the experience was just as brilliant as the first time I visited. As someone who works in customer service for a major retailer, I have to say that the customer service I received at Jones and Co was exemplary. From arriving at Reception to the extensive eye test to the personal fitting service, nothing is too much trouble. I was treated as a very special person with unique needs and the range of glasses I was shown were absolutely beautiful. I have worn glasses for around ten years and the glasses from Jones and Co are the very best I have worn. I get compliments every day about my glasses as they fit me so beautifully because they were styled for me. That is Jones and Co. I can't recommend them highly enough.

Over the years I have tried almost every High St optician chain never feeling they have ever managed to get either the frame or the lenses quite right. I have a fairly complex prescription & I am D/deaf so a rushed assembly-line service in a noisy shop does not work for me. By chance an advert for Jones AND Co. on Facebook caught my eye so I spontaneously made an appointment to investigate. The store is easy to find and it is a delightfully quiet and pleasant environment. Gareth the optician looked after me ensuring he understood what my needs were and in turn ensured I fully understood what my options are and that I was 100% happy with my choice never rushing me. I was quite overwhelmed when I came to collect as my specs were everything I hoped and more ! I thoroughly recommend Jones AND Co if individual care and style is important to you. I really valued Gareth's care and attention he is a thoroughly lovely kind man, I'll be back !

After my wife bought her new Lindberg frames in June I was impressed with the courtesy, friendly reception and professional approach she received so when it was time for my eye test I had no hesitation in returning to Jones and Co. After the test was completed Nick showed me a number of frame options ( I too am a Lindberg fan) and we soon arrived at a frame/lens shape combination which we thought would fit the bill just fine. We returned today to collect my new glasses and they are just what I hoped they'd be. Again Nick was as helpful as ever and I'll certainly return here when my next appointment is due.

I have lived with massive eye problems and had procedures carried out in this country and abroad. I thought I was receiving the best treatment, but nobody could eradicate my problems entirely. Then, I met team Jones and had my eyes measured by Conor who came up with a totally different formula. If you're looking for unique stylish frames with absolutely fantastic service then Jones and Co is the place to be. Being smaller in stature than most with petite features, I've always struggled to find frames that don't drown my face. Never again, in fact, I left with 2 pairs. Their honesty in helping me find the right frame for me was perfect, no telling you what they thought you wanted to hear or directing you to the children's section (which I've often encountered). I couldn't recommend more highly!

I've had awful experiences with glasses in the past - terrible quality, bad service and so on. I loved my experience with these guys - eagerly awaiting my appointment next week to pick up my new glasses, but the service here is unlike any high street opticians. It's a completely personal experience, not the standard sales technique you'll be used to.

My stylist Gareth pushed me to try different frames to suit my face shape that I would never have normally picked up - friendly, knowledgeable and professional, you can't fault the staff here and I absolutely loved the pair I went with. If you're looking for a high quality frame that's totally unique, you should definitely try this place. They are a little more on the expensive side it has to be said, but what you get is worth the price tag - I'll certainly be back!

I don't know why it took me so long to stumble across Jones And Co - blame the dodgy frames sitting haphazardly somewhere near my myopic peepers. Jones And Co are outstanding. The staff are lovely - professional, friendly, welcoming and (gently) enthusiastic. Their skills at choosing a selection of frames for you to try on will ensure that you leave wearing some seriously stylish spectacles. Their aftercare is excellent and they are happy to tweak until your frames are entirely comfortable. My only concern is how many pairs are enough.....

I called Jones and Co today at 2pm and asked if they could schedule me in for a consultation before 5pm. They were more than willing to accommodate me and I must say, the service was extraordinary from Dan and Gareth. They provided a great balance of professionalism and friendliness and I couldn't fault the approach and level of personalisation during the consultation. I went in with a budget of between £500-£750 and this was carefully considered during the product selection process. I ended up selecting a pair I would never have chosen for myself without expert advice and paid £545 for frames and lenses. I paid for a superior service and a superior product. I got both and will never go anywhere else.

Jones and Co. is wonderful. After struggling for a long time to find some glasses we stumbled upon Jones and Co (Thanks Google Search).

We arrived to a cup of tea and coffee and made the whole experience of choosing glasses so much easier. The staff are warm and friendly. The atmosphere is blissfully calm. You do pay for this level of service, but it is money well spent.

They also send out a very thoughtful newsletter, which seems a little strange for an optician, but it is well worth a read.

Truly brilliant. Big brother made a recc and he is a man with taste so had to book and find out! Frustrated with poor examinations and lack of accuracy so finding this superb service was an absolute relief as poorly prescribed lenses were creating problems. Also, finally had an honest opinion on what looked the best frame wise which is invaluable. Excited to be part of this community. Do not doubt, get yourself booked in.

Many years ago I visited EVERY optician in Manchester, searching for the Holy Grail...a pair of glasses that would be impossibly light and comfortable, and virtually indestructible... and that would enable me to see clearly, everything from close reading, to computer screens, to driving conditions and theatre shows! The lovely people at Jones & Co spent so much time with me, patiently showing me all the options, and advising me to try a Titanium frame with lightweight varifocal lenses. Eureka!! This was the end of my search. I'm not a follower of fashions, but I was quietly delighted to find that complete strangers now stop me to ask me where I bought my glasses, because they are so elegant, minimalist and discretely stylish. Visiting Jones & Co is like visiting old friends...there's always a personal welcome and the offer of a cup of tea!! Don't even think about going anywhere else!

Having recently moved to Manchester I chose Jones & Co based purely on online reviews. I am glad I did! I particularly enjoyed the process of choosing frames for my new glasses, not something you'd usually associate with fun, but I was shown a lovely selection of frames, received helpful advice & was not rushed or pressured into choosing. I got my new glasses yesterday and am very happy with them.

I am getting married at the end of the year. My fiancée thought it would be good if I could have new glasses for the day. As it is nearly 2 years since my last eye examination, I booked this. The examination was very thorough. I suffer from dry eyes and receive a prescription from my doctor. The optician advised me re the cause and how to help it. this has proved to be really good advice and hopefully I will be able to go without the prescription in due course.

I then went to chose my glasses. I explained what I liked and why. I was provided with a large selection which was soon whittled down. Finally one was agreed upon after some great advice from all the staff. The glasses were ready very quickly. My fiancée approved and in fact thinks the glasses are a great choice. Thank you all very much for all your kind help and advice

I have heard excellent reviews about Jones And Co., Styling Opticians, but what attracted my attention mostly, was the far away distance that some people were willing to travel as far as London, Birmingham..., so I decided this could be the dream Optician I was looking for!

And after the experience I had with Jones And Co., and all its staff especially the kind, nice, patient, helpful, professional and expert JESSY, I must confess, I am very glad with the result. All the comments I've had were positive and most importantly the beautiful, high quality FRAMES that Jessy recommended, make me feel good!! And I dare say make me feel younger!!

Actually, they are the best glasses I have ever worn!

Thank you to everyone especially to Mr CONOR HEANEY, the Top Optician who was very friendly and professional.

Excellent service & well done!
