Leadership & Executive Coaching

This program is further differentiated by its acute focus on career development, of which leadership and executive coaching is a major component. You can expect to encounter some or all of these opportunities throughout your course of study:

- Leadership Coaching
- Executive Coaching
- Team Before Action Review
- Team After Action Review
- Team Peer Assessment
1. Start Your Application
Create an account on our application portal and begin. Your application can be saved and returned to later.

2. Submit Résumé & Transcripts
Upload both a one- to two-page résumé and a scanned copy of your university transcripts.
Your résumé must include an employment section (locations, titles, and dates, starting with your most recent job) and an education section (dates of attendance and degrees received).

3. Secure Two Letters of Recommendation
Choose two people to act as references; one should know you well in your current position.
Your references should be able to answer the following questions:
- Which group the applicant belongs to (e.g., co-worker, MBA graduate, etc.)
- What characteristics or attributes best describe the applicant?
- In what area is the applicant most exceptional?
- In what area(s) does the applicant need improvement? Describe the applicant’s awareness of these areas and response to constructive feedback.
- How would they describe the applicant’s interpersonal skills and the impression they make in work situations, and how effective is the applicant when working in a team?

Enter your recommender information into your application and attach the letters of recommendation.

4. Schedule an Interview
Use this link [goizueta.emory.edu/engagement/evening-or-executive-mba-interview] to schedule an interview time or email onlineMBA@emory.edu for an alternative time.

5. Begin Your Essays

5.1. Post-MBA Career Goals
Define your short-term post-MBA career goals. How are your professional strengths, past experience, and personal attributes aligned with these goals?
300-word limit

5.2. Leadership in Business
Provide a specific example of your leadership and explain what you learned about yourself through the experience.
300-word limit

5.3 Why Goizueta?
What are you looking to gain from Goizueta’s MBA and how do you see yourself contributing to the Goizueta community?
200-word limit

5.4. Video Essay
We want to hear you tell some of your story. The video essay lets every candidate talk to the admissions committee and reveal more of your true character.

6. Submit Your Application

OPTIONAL STEPS

7. Attend a Virtual Event
Register for an upcoming class or information session.

8. Submit Your Test Scores
While it’s not a requirement, if you have taken the GMAT, GRE, or Executive Assessment (SA), you may include it in your application.
HOW WE HELP ADVANCE YOUR CAREER

Coaching
Every student is given year-round access to a dedicated career coach, delivering 100% personalized mentoring. Your Goizueta career coach will be available when you are, help you evaluate your career options, guide you on information sources and support, and keep you accountable to your action plan.

Networking & Student Events
Throughout the program, you’ll gain online and in-person access to dynamic events that provide numerous industry and alumni connections. When you graduate, you immediately join a group of 141,000 worldwide Emory alumni, a network that can open all types of doors.

Workshops
For students undertaking a career search, our Advanced Career Transitions program provides skills development and preparation workshops to get you where you deserve to be.

Scholarships & Financial Aid
We believe that every student should be able to pursue their education, regardless of their financial situation, and so we offer many ways to finance your MBA, from scholarships to funding assistance and a range of payment options.

And with no fewer than seven assisted funding options available for military veterans—and alumni representing each branch of the U.S. armed forces—we’re one of the country’s most military-friendly institutions.
