INFORMATION ABOUT OUR USE OF COOKIES

Cookies are small files of letters and numbers that we store on your computer or device if you agree, which contain information related to a website you visit. Cookies may allow a website to “remember” your actions or preferences over a period of time, or they may contain data related to the function or delivery of the site.

Cookies can be set by the owner of a website or in some cases by third party services the website owner allows to present other information, run content or provide other functionality such as analytics.

We use cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site.

TYPES OF COOKIES USED ON OUR WEBSITE

We use Google Analytics cookies, which allow us to measure and learn in aggregate how our website is being used, and to see, for example, which are the most popular pages. This will help us ensure we provide relevant information in an easily accessible format. See Google Analytics (<https://developers.google.com/analytics/devguides/collection/analyticsjs/cookie-usage>) for more information.

Cookies are generally divided into session cookies and persistent cookies.

- Session cookies. These are temporary cookies that are not persistently stored on your computer or device. They are used to deliver basic functions of a website while you are actively using it. Session cookies are generally erased when you close your browser.
- Persistent cookies. These are cookies placed on your computer or device for a pre-determined length of time when you visit this site. This allows the site to deliver functions between browser sessions and subsequent visits. This site only places cookies that are specific to this site.

We use cookies for a number of reasons.

- Essential cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website.
- Analytical/performance cookies. These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

You can find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them in the table below.
