For calculation on estimated reach, we have considered the metric of 'daily page views for online websites,' whereas, for print publications, we have considered 'circulation.' (The reach has been calculated from the data derived from statshow.com and themediaant.com)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>S. No.</th>
<th>Headline</th>
<th>Publication</th>
<th>Type of Coverage</th>
<th>Reach/Circulation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>First cohort of administrative fellowship graduates announced</td>
<td>The Times of India</td>
<td>Print</td>
<td>500,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>First 10 admin fellow graduates</td>
<td>Deccan Herald</td>
<td>Print</td>
<td>300,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>Executives who worked alongside IAS offices feted</td>
<td>The Hindu</td>
<td>Print</td>
<td>250,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4</td>
<td>Governor felicitated IAF candidates</td>
<td>Dakshin Bharat</td>
<td>Print</td>
<td>80,000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5</td>
<td>K'taka govt, non-profit felicitate first cohort of administrative fellowship graduates</td>
<td>PTI</td>
<td>Online</td>
<td>374,670</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>Indian administrative fellowship: First batch of Indian Administrative Fellowship passes out after working in Karnataka</td>
<td>The Economic Times</td>
<td>Online</td>
<td>52,719,780</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>K'taka govt, non-profit felicitate first cohort of administrative fellowship graduates</td>
<td>The Print</td>
<td>Online</td>
<td>1,624,470</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8</td>
<td>Inaugural cohort of Indian Administrative Fellowship graduates in Karnataka</td>
<td>The News Minute</td>
<td>Online</td>
<td>511,230</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9</td>
<td>K'taka govt non-profit felicitate first cohort of administrative fellowship graduates</td>
<td>The Week</td>
<td>Online</td>
<td>301,110</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10</td>
<td>K'taka govt, non-profit felicitate first cohort of administrative fellowship graduates</td>
<td>News Drum</td>
<td>Online</td>
<td>176,160</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>Govt. of Karnataka and The/Nudge Institute Announce the Graduation of the inaugural cohort of Indian Administrative Fellowship</td>
<td>Passionate in Marketing</td>
<td>Online</td>
<td>91,320</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>12</td>
<td>Govt. of Karnataka and The/Nudge Institute Announce the Graduation of the inaugural cohort of Indian Administrative Fellowship</td>
<td>Mix Point</td>
<td>Online</td>
<td>28,440</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
First cohort of administrative fellowship graduates announced

The state government, together with a non-profit organisation on Monday announced the graduation of the inaugural cohort of ‘Indian Administrative Fellowship’, under which 10 senior corporate executives supported senior bureaucrats in state departments to address “critical developmental challenges”. The inaugural cohort, which completed their 18-month term, was felicitated by governor Thaawar Chand Gehlot at Raj Bhavan. In July 2021, the government had welcomed 10 top corporate executives from the private sector to work alongside high-ranking bureaucrats through the fellowship, a first-of-its-kind programme by the ‘Nudge Institute’.
First 10 admin fellows graduate

BENGALURU DHNS: The inaugural batch of the government’s Indian Administrative Fellowship (IAF) graduated on Monday after their 18-month stint in policy making. In July last year, 10 corporate executives were picked to work with top bureaucrats under the IAF, which was anchored by Bengaluru-headquartered nonprofit The/Nudge Foundation. Upon their graduation, the fellows were felicitated by Governor Thaawar Chand Gehlot. The 10 graduating fellows are: Aruna Sampige, Balasubramanya R, Gayathri Swahar, Giri Balasubramaniam, Ramachandran Narayanaswamy, Ravi Trivedi, Rajiv Malhotra, Shobha Amruta Reddy, Sunil Kumar Vaya and Sreenivasa Madanahally. Their work contributed towards creation of technology frameworks in Women & Child Development, go-to-market strategies and brand creation for FPO produce, agritech innovations for farmers among others, according to a release. Chief secretary Vandita Sharma and additional chief secretary (planning) Shalini Rajneesh were present.
Executives who worked alongside IAS officers feted

As many as 10 ‘C’ Suite executives from the private sector, who worked alongside high-ranking bureaucrats through the Indian Administrative Fellowship, a first-of-its-kind programme organised by The/Nudge Institute completed their 18-month term with the government. A valedictory ceremony was organised on Monday at Raj Bhavan. According to a release, the Fellows have worked on key departmental priorities and projects infusing into their work, ideas, innovation, and technology. Their contributions have resulted in creation of technology frameworks in Women and Child Development, go-to market strategies and brand creation for FPO produce and Agritech innovations for farmer beneficiaries. They were felicitated by Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot and Chief Secretary Vandita Sharma.
आईएएफ पेशेवरों का राज्यपाल ने किया सम्मान

केंद्रीय/दक्षिण भारत। सोमवार को केंद्र में राज्यपाल में भारतीय प्रशासनिक पैकेटिंग (आईएएफ) पेशेवरों को राज्यपाल राष्ट्रवादन कल्याण गहलोत ने सम्मानित किया। आईएएफ द्वारा कर्नाटक की क्षमता बढ़ाने और प्रभावी शासन देने के लिए मजबूत सार्वजनिक-निजी सहयोग बनाने में आगे रहा है। जुलाई 2021 में, कर्नाटक सरकार ने निजी क्षेत्र से 10 शी-सूट के अधिकारियों का स्वागत किया था, जो भारतीय प्रशासनिक पैकेटिंग (आईएएफ) के माध्यम से उद्धृतियों के तीव्रवाद वाले नीतिशास्त्र के साथ काम करने के लिए पहला कार्यक्रम था। उद्धृतियां समूह ने आज अध्यक्षता समस्त प्रशासनों के साथ सरकार के साथ अपने 18 महीने का कार्यक्रम पूरा किया, और राज्यपाल में राज्यपाल बादल गहलोत द्वारा सम्मानित किया गया।

राज्यपाल ने अपने भाषण में अध्यक्षों के विभागों पर विचार किया और कहा, इस कृत्य के माध्यम से, विभाग कार्यक्रमों के विकास और वित्तपोषण पर एक नया दृष्टिकोण प्राप्त करने में सक्षम थे, नवीन प्रावधानों को अपनाने और तकनीकी नवाचारों को पेश करने में सक्षम थे जो पहले अवश्य थे।
K'taka govt, non-profit felicitate first cohort of administrative fellowship graduates

Updated: Dec 12 2022 6:04PM

Bengaluru, Dec 12 (PTI) The Karnataka government and a non-profit organisation on Monday announced the graduation of the inaugural cohort of 'Indian Administrative Fellowship', as part of which 10 senior corporate executives supported senior bureaucrats in state departments to address 'critical developmental challenges'.

Aimed at building robust public-private collaborations to augment capacity and deliver effective governance, the state government in July 2021 had welcomed 10 top corporate executives from the private sector to work alongside high-ranking bureaucrats through the fellowship, a first-of-its-kind programme by The/Nudge Institute.

The inaugural cohort today completed their 18-month term with the government by creating “highly successful” outcomes, and were felicitated by Karnataka Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot at Raj Bhavan here, The/Nudge Institute said in a release.
First batch of Indian Administrative Fellowship passes out after working in Karnataka

Synopsis
The Nudge's IAF programme aims to strengthen the reach and efficiency of large-scale government programmes and priorities and is designed to enable visionary civil servants to draw inspiration from the expertise and leadership of the private sector and apply it to effectively bring about strategic shifts in delivery of the state's programs.

The first batch of the Indian Administrative Fellowship, an initiative of The Nudge to augment the capacity of government institutions with senior executives from the corporate sector, (Fellows) completed their 18 month term with the Karnataka government on Monday.

Governor Thawar Chand Gehlot honoured them at the Raj Bhavan.

The Nudge's IAF programme aims to strengthen the reach and efficiency of large-scale government programmes and priorities and is designed to enable visionary civil servants to draw inspiration from the expertise and leadership of the private sector and apply it to effectively bring about strategic shifts in delivery of the state's programs.
Bengaluru, Dec 12 (PTI) The Karnataka government and a non-profit organisation on Monday announced the graduation of the inaugural cohort of 'Indian Administrative Fellowship', as part of which 10 senior corporate executives supported senior bureaucrats in state departments to address "critical developmental challenges".

Aimed at building robust public-private collaborations to augment capacity and deliver effective governance, the state government in July 2021 had welcomed 10 top corporate executives from the private sector to work alongside high-ranking bureaucrats through the fellowship, a first-of-its-kind programme by The/Nudge Institute.

The inaugural cohort today completed their 18-month term with the government by creating "highly successful" outcomes, and were felicitated by Karnataka Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot at Raj Bhavan here, The/Nudge Institute said in a release.
Inaugural cohort of Indian Administrative Fellowship graduates in Karnataka

The inaugural cohort, on Monday, completed their 18-month term with the government successfully and were felicitated by Governor Thawar Chand Gehlot at the Raj Bhavan.

In July 2021, the Government of Karnataka had welcomed 10 C-Suite executives from the private sector to work alongside high-ranking bureaucrats through the Indian Administrative Fellowship (IAF), a first of its kind program by The/Nudge Institute. The inaugural cohort on Monday, December 12, completed their 18-month term with the government successfully and were felicitated by Governor Thawar Chand Gehlot at the Raj Bhavan.
K'taka govt non-profit felicitate first cohort of administrative fellowship graduates

PTI | Updated: December 12, 2022 18:00 IST

Bengaluru, Dec 12 (PTI) The Karnataka government and a non-profit organisation on Monday announced the graduation of the inaugural cohort of Indian Administrative Fellowship, as part of which 10 senior corporate executives supported senior bureaucrats in state departments to address "critical developmental challenges".

The inaugural cohort today completed their 18-month term with the government by creating "highly successful" outcomes, and were felicitated by Karnataka Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot at Raj Bhavan here, The/Nudge Institute said in a release.

It said, the fellows, each with stellar careers of 20-plus years, have worked on key departmental priorities and projects infusing into the work, ideas, innovation, efficiency and technology frameworks in Women and Child Development, go to market strategies and brand creation for FPO produce and agritech innovations for farmer beneficiaries among others, it added.

The Indian Administrative Fellowship is an initiative of The/Nudge to augment the capacity of government institutions with senior executives from the corporate sector (fellows). Each fellow brings strategic acumen, entrepreneurial drive as well as execution capability to steer large-scale multi-stakeholder programs/initiatives, it said. PTI KSU RS_HDA
K'taka govt, non-profit felicitate first cohort of administrative fellowship graduates

NewsDrum Desk
12 Dec 2022

Bengaluru, Dec 12 (PTI) The Karnataka government and a non-profit organisation on Monday announced the graduation of the inaugural cohort of 'Indian Administrative Fellowship', as part of which 10 senior corporate executives supported senior bureaucrats in state departments to address "critical developmental challenges".

Aimed at building robust public-private collaborations to augment capacity and deliver effective governance, the state government in July 2021 had welcomed 10 top corporate executives from the private sector to work alongside high-ranking bureaucrats through the fellowship, a first-of-its-kind programme by The/Nudge Institute.
Govt. of Karnataka and The/Nudge Institute Announce the Graduation of the inaugural cohort of Indian Administrative Fellowship

~ Hon’ble Governor Shri. Thawar Chand Gehlot along with Smt. Vandita Sharma, Chief Secretary, Government of Karnataka felicitated the Fellows at Raj Bhavan

~ The IAF program, launched in Karnataka in July 2021, has been a pioneering new model for Public-Private Partnerships. 10 senior corporate executives have supported senior bureaucrats in State departments to address critical developmental challenges
Govt. of Karnataka and The/Nudge Institute Announce the Graduation of the inaugural cohort of Indian Administrative Fellowship

by Mixpoint PR  December 12, 2022

~ Hon’ble Governor Shri. Thawar Chand Gehlot along with Smt. Vandita Sharma, Chief Secretary, Government of Karnataka felicitated the Fellows at Raj Bhavan

~ The IAF program, launched in Karnataka in July 2021, has been a pioneering new model for Public-Private Partnerships. 10 senior corporate executives have supported senior bureaucrats in State departments to address critical developmental challenges of the State

Dec 12, Bangalore: Karnataka has been a pioneer in building robust public-private collaborations to augment capacity and deliver effective governance. In July 2021, the Government of Karnataka had welcomed 10 C-Suite executives from the private sector to work alongside high-ranking bureaucrats through the Indian Administrative Fellowship (IAF), a first of its kind program by The/Nudge Institute. The inaugural cohort today completed their 18 month term with the government, with highly successful outcomes, and were felicitated by the Hon’ble governor Thawar Chand Gehlot at the Raj Bhavan.