

CANNON BEACH CHORUS SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

The Cannon Beach Chorus Scholarship is awarded annually to promote collegiate choral studies. The Chorus is proud to offer this scholarship to a graduating high school senior vocalist who has earned high school choir credits, and who is planning to continue choral singing at a four-year college or university. The amount of the scholarship will be determined by the quality of the audition and available funds. Typically amounts range from $500-$1500.

To apply for this scholarship:

1. Complete and submit application

Use the online fillable application or print, fill out and mail the pdf version with an extra sheet for essay questions.

Essays should include descriptions of choral experiences, performances, solos, musical theater, lessons, etc.

2. Enlist two people to write letters of recommendation on your behalf.

These should be individuals who are capable of evaluating your musical involvement and abilities (e.g. choral teacher, private voice instructor, etc.). The two signed letters of recommendation should be submitted to Cannon Beach Chorus Scholarship Committee at info@cannonbeachchorus.org. Printed and sealed letters may be mailed to the address below. Final date for completed submissions, including the two letters of recommendation, is April 8.

3. Audition and interview

Applicants are expected to perform two accompanied vocal solos from standard vocal literature (e.g. First Book Series, 26 Italian Series, or Schirmer ed., Young Singer Series, Pathways of Song Series, etc.) A pianist will be provided if needed. If you have questions about acceptable music, please contact info@cannonbeachchorus.org. NOTE: Singing a cappella or utilizing CD accompaniment is not recommended. Following the audition, you will be interviewed by the CBC Scholarship Committee.

Application Due Date: The Scholarship application must be received by the Cannon Beach Chorus Scholarship Committee by April 8. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

Mail printed applications to:

Cannon Beach Chorus Scholarships, PO Box 725, Cannon Beach, OR, 97110

Auditions/Interviews will occur by April 29. Auditions are held at the Cannon Beach Community Church, 132 E. Washington St., Cannon Beach, 97110. Each applicant will be contacted regarding his/her audition time and location.
