

GLOBAL GATHERING BALI 2023

DISCOVA DAY TOURS

OPTION 1

Full Day

Ubud Surroundings & Tegenungan Waterfall

Bali is known for its handmade Batik fabrics, and Tohpati is a great place to see them being created.

Jewelry lovers will enjoy a stop in Celuk, where a variety of styles are available to admire and purchase.

The Tegallalang rice fields are a popular spot for photographers seeking iconic Bali images.

A delicious lunch can be had at a restaurant in Ubud, which also offers a chance to see the mischievous macaque monkeys in the Monkey Forest.

The day's itinerary includes a visit to Tegenungan Waterfall, a scenic and relaxing spot in a lush jungle setting.

OPTION 2

Full Day

Ubud & Rice Fields Tour

The tour starts in Tohpati, where Bali's famous Batik fabrics are handmade.

Then, visit the village of Mas, known for its skilled silversmiths who create a range of jewelry styles.

The Tegallalang rice fields offer stunning scenery not to be missed.

Enjoy lunch at a local restaurant with beautiful surroundings.

Don't leave Ubud without seeing the playful macaque monkeys and shopping at the Ubud Market for clothing, jewelry, art, and souvenirs, where bargaining is expected.

OPTION 3

Full Day

Kintamani Barong & Monkey Forest

Start the day early with a trip to Sahadewa village for the Barong Dance. This performance showcases the battle between good and evil and the invulnerability of the Barong followers.

Visit art centers in Ubud, Mas, Celuk, and Batubulan for crafts and stone carvings.

Stop at Tirta Empul and have lunch in Kintamani with views of the magnificent Mount Batur and Lake Batur.

End the tour with a visit to the Monkey Forest in Ubud.

OPTION 4

Half Day

Uluwatu Temple & Kecak Dance

Visit the famous Pura Luhur Uluwatu temple, perched above the water, offering a stunning view of the beach and Indian Ocean waves.

Keep an eye out for monkeys and enjoy a unique Kecak dance performance featuring 100 men swaying and chanting to the hypnotic music.

The dance portrays the ancient story from Ramayana of King Rahwana capturing Sita, Rama's wife, and the battle between Rahwana and Hanoman, leader of apes.
