LOST PINES

A SETTING THAT SPARKS CREATIVITY

Productivity and play go hand in hand at Lost Pines. Set on 405 secluded acres just outside of Austin, this refined ranch-style experience offers a wealth of possibilities for you and your team—whether you're hosting a retreat with key leaders and executives, an all-company gathering, or even an incentive trip for top performers.

Here it's easy to balance focus and fun, thanks to flexible venues, team-building activities, and everything you'd expect at an expansive resort: championship golf, a spa, a water park, multiple dining and catering options, modern guestrooms and suites, and more.

Better yet, beneath the towering pine and pecan trees, surrounded by the wonders of nature, you'll feel inspired and energized. You'll find the time and space to collaborate.

You'll build stronger relationships. And you'll put your team on a path to greater success.

AN EXERCISE IN TEAM-BUILDING

Playing together can help team members work better together—and these bonds can contribute to a better company culture, too. At Lost Pines, you'll find unlimited opportunities to build a stronger team through activities designed to invite exploration, build trust, and even get some competitive juices flowing.

Our group activity menu offers flexible and fun options for teams of all sizes, including private “Iron Chef”– and “Amazing Race”–inspired competitions, challenge courses, falconry presentations, and plenty of other unique experiences. Our pools and water park offer additional options for a more relaxed form of team-building, with cabanas and the Hummingbird Lagoon available for private gatherings.

And if your team prefers to bond on the fairway, Lost Pines Golf Club is challenging yet playable for all skill levels, while those who seek something a bit more soothing can connect after a treatment at The Spa at Lost Pines.

Our experiences can be tailored just for your group, giving you countless ways to reward the team after a productive day.

BUILD SELF-CARE INTO THE SCHEDULE

The perfect reward for a job well-done—or perhaps an ideal way to prepare for the work ahead—The Spa at Lost Pines can help awaken the senses with nurturing face and body treatments in a Zen-inspired sanctuary.

It's a true respite from the stresses of everyday life (and work), both within the treatment rooms and beyond, thanks to eucalyptus steam rooms, heat therapy whirlpools, and a private outdoor pool and hot tub.

Other well-being activities abound as well, including meditation and yoga, fitness classes, bonding with our mascots, and hiking and biking around our 405 acres. All will nurture both mind and body, putting your team members in position to perform at their best.

UNWIND & RECHARGE

Our modern ranch-style guestrooms and suites invite your team to make themselves at home, providing a tranquil place to regroup. Rooms take full advantage of the rustic natural setting, with many featuring a private patio or balcony to unwind and enjoy the view. Our spacious suites, available in a variety of configurations, are stylishly designed and come with separate living and dining areas.

You can elevate your retreat or strategy session even further with The Litton House—a 2,600-square-foot, two-bedroom cottage that includes a living room, fireplace, dining room, and full kitchen. Ideal for small, private gatherings, it also offers a fully furnished patio.

Our Governors Suite is another option for key leaders, with dramatic 20-foot vaulted ceilings and expansive living and dining areas spread across 1,806 square feet.

NOURISH YOUR TEAM'S CREATIVITY

At Lost Pines, you'll find a host of culinary offerings to fuel both work and play—including catering perfectly tailored for every stage of your event. A team breakfast to help build energy before the first session of the day? A just-right lunch break to rebuild focus and propel everyone into the afternoon? Our team will craft delicious and diverse dishes to help keep the team on point at every point.

Private group dining is available in our multitude of restaurants as well, from the farm-to-table experience at Stories Ranch Kitchen to our modern take on the classic Texas roadhouse at Maverick's Roadhouse. There's always something new to explore—and a new opportunity to bond, because nothing brings people together like sharing a good meal.

ROOM FOR THE WHOLE TEAM

Our range of inspiring meeting spaces makes Lost Pines ideal for any kind of meeting—small-scale board meetings, large conferences, extravagant receptions and celebrations. And though we're just 20 minutes from Austin-Bergstrom International Airport, our 405 acres feel like an escape that is truly away from it all.

Featuring 300,000 square feet of flexible indoor and outdoor event space, Lost Pines has the ideal venue for your meeting or gathering, whether it's 10, 100, 1,000 attendees or more. Our modern ranch experience sets the stage for memorable and inspiring events with ballrooms and boardrooms that can be arranged in a variety of ways. You'll also find stunning outdoor spaces that capture the beauty of Texas Hill Country, from lush lawns to a natural amphitheater overlooking the river to pavilions with retractable glass walls.

For intimate gatherings of 20 or fewer, Hyatt's Meetings on Demand can help you select the space, configure the room, choose food and beverage options, and more. Our team of event planners is also available to ensure your meeting or event is executed to perfection with catering, innovative technology, live tech support, and planning assistance.

STUNNING SPACES, INDOORS AND OUT
