THE GREATER GOOD®

Picture yourself living and working in central Wisconsin.

Since 1897, Church Mutual Insurance Company, S.I. (a stock insurer)<sup>1</sup> has called central Wisconsin home. While the area has grown in the past 120-plus years, some things remain the same. Central Wisconsin is a hub for both culture and the outdoors. Come see what we have to offer!

- Water sports – From a relaxing kayak trip down the Wisconsin River or hitting the Wausau Whitewater Park, to swimming, water skiing, boating and year-round fishing, if you enjoy the water, opportunities are plentiful.
- Museums – Both Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum and Wausau Museum of Contemporary Art feature rotating exhibitions from nationally known artists.
- Golf – There are eight golf courses in the Wausau and Merrill area alone, or you could take a quick trip to Stevens Point to play SentryWorld, consistently ranked as one of the best destination golf courses in the nation.
- The great outdoors – If you love the outdoors, the area can't be beat. There is a plethora of public land waiting to be explored and wildlife to be seen.
- Local foodie scene – Numerous locally-owned restaurants support the economy through farm-to-table programs, resulting in delightful dishes sure to please.
- Sporting events – From Northwoods League baseball and Tier III hockey, to stock car races at State Park Speedway, ice drags, snowmobile races, a world-class curling venue and the Badger State Winter Games, there's a little something for everyone.
- Live performances – From Concerts on the Square to Gazebo Nights and Music on the River, live music is everywhere on a weekly basis. Add in the Grand Theater, which offers world class programming from touring Broadway shows, and you have experiences not to be missed.
- A wealth of state and county parks offer plenty of opportunities for camping, walking, hiking, mountain biking, swimming, snowshoeing, cross country skiing and downhill skiing at Granite Peak.
- Annual festivals – Wausau Balloon Rally and Rib Fest, Artrageous Weekend and the Big Bull Falls Blues Fest, as well as many others, will keep you busy on the weekends.
