

Wrigley Media Group is a full-service production and post team of award-winning writers, directors, artists, editors, and producers with creative partnerships and alliances around the world. Through strategic production and operational tactics, we take deep pride in making programming affordable again and consistently deliver world-class content on every platform and for clients coast to coast.

Our sister company, LEX STUDIOS, has the largest state-of-the-art sound stages in Kentucky and we offer White Glove Production Partnerships, Post Production/Finishing/GFX Facilities, Incentive Refund Processing and Financing, Gear Rentals, Location Management Services, Production Support Teams, Innovative Production & Logistical Strategy, and Local Office Headquarters.

From scripted (features, series, docs) to unscripted (format, clip, game, house reality, stage, re-cre, docu, makeover), to stand alone post production and finishing, we are rooted in the proud Wrigley tradition to serve and pioneer solutions.
