Archived June 30, 2020

THIS MASTER SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT GOVERNS YOUR ORGANIZATION'S ACQUISITION AND USE OF ANY PRODUCTS (AS DEFINED BELOW) OF ILLUMIO, INC. IF YOU REGISTER FOR A FREE TRIAL FOR ANY PRODUCT, THIS MASTER SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT WILL ALSO GOVERN THAT FREE TRIAL. BY EXECUTING AN ORDER FORM THAT REFERENCES THIS MASTER SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT, YOU AGREE TO THE TERMS OF THIS MASTER SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT. YOU REPRESENT THAT YOU HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO BIND YOUR ORGANIZATION'S ENTITY AND ITS AFFILIATES TO THIS MASTER SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT.

This Master Subscription Agreement, including all exhibits, schedules and Order Forms hereto (the "Master Subscription Agreement"), is made and entered into as of the date (the "Effective Date") of the most recent Order Form by and between Illumio, Inc. a Delaware corporation ("Illumio"), and the party indicated on the applicable Order Form ("You," "Your" or "Customer").

Certain capitalized terms used herein are defined in Section 17 hereof.

1. General. Unless an Order Form is executed by You and Illumio, You will not be granted any licenses with respect to any Products under the Master Subscription Agreement. Unless otherwise specified in this Master Subscription Agreement, the provisions of the Master Subscription Agreement will apply to all Products provided by Illumio. In addition, certain supplemental terms will apply to and govern only specific Products that are licensed, purchased or provided to You under the applicable Order Form (the "Supplemental Terms"), as set forth below:

SaaS Services

On-Premises Software

Maintenance and Support Services

Professional Services

Training Services

Data Processing

2. Products. Subject to Your compliance with the Master Subscription Agreement, Illumio provides You with the Products as specified in the applicable Order Form.

3. Fees. In consideration for Illumio providing the Products specified in the applicable Order Form, You will pay Illumio the Fees specified in the applicable Order Form. The Fees set forth in each Order Form will be invoiced in full upon execution of the applicable Order Form. Except as otherwise specified in any Order Form, Fees are based on Products purchased and not actual usage of the Products, and all Fees and payment obligations are non-refundable and non-cancellable. The Customer will pay all taxes and duties assessed in connection with the Master Subscription Agreement, and the performance of the duties hereunder, by any authority within or outside of the U.S., except for taxes payable on Illumio's net income. Illumio will invoice You for all such taxes and duties unless You provide Illumio with a valid tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate taxing authorities. All amounts not paid when due under the Master Subscription Agreement will accrue interest daily (without the requirement of a notice) at a rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month or the highest rate permissible by law, whichever is lower, until the unpaid balance is paid in full. If any amount owed by You hereunder is thirty (30) days or more overdue, Illumio may, with seven (7) days' prior notice to You, at its sole discretion: (a) terminate the Master Subscription Agreement; or (b) suspend Your access to the Products until such amounts are paid in full. This Section will in no way limit any other rights or remedies of Illumio. Upon automatic renewal of the Subscription Term for subscription Products as provided in Section 14 below, the unit price will increase by five percent (5%) for each successive Renewal Subscription Term. Notwithstanding the above, Illumio reserves the right to evaluate all pricing on an annual basis. If You purchased the Products through an Illumio-approved channel partner, all payment-related terms (including, but not limited to, pricing, invoicing, billing, payment methods, and late payment charges) will be set forth in Your agreement directly with such Illumio-approved channel partner and such payment-related terms will supersede any conflicting terms set forth in this Section.
4. Review. Upon at least ten (10) days' prior written notice, Illumio may review the Customer's use of the Products, or parts thereof, to ensure that the Customer follows the terms of the Master Subscription Agreement and the applicable Order Form. Any such review will be conducted during regular business hours at the Customer's facilities and will be conducted so as to not unreasonably interfere with the Customer's business activities. As part of such review, the Customer will provide Illumio with access to the relevant Customer records and facilities. If the review reveals that the Customer has underpaid Illumio, then Illumio will invoice the Customer for such underpaid amount, and the Customer will pay Illumio for such underpayment amount within five (5) days of the date of such invoice. In the event of any underpayment to Illumio which exceeds five percent (5%) of the Fees due to Illumio, the Customer will also pay for Illumio's costs of conducting the review and audit.
5. Data. Illumio may collect and process technical and related information about Customer's use of the Products to support and troubleshoot issues, provide Updates, analyze trends and improve the Products. As between the Customer and Illumio, the Customer owns all worldwide right, title and interest in and to all the Customer Data, and Illumio will not obtain any ownership rights or interests therein. The Customer hereby grants to Illumio a non-exclusive, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free, perpetual, license and right to access, use, reproduce, process, analyze and store the Customer Data as is necessary to provide the Products hereunder.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Master Subscription Agreement, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that Illumio may retain and continue to use (both during the Subscription Term (as defined below) and thereafter) the Customer Data in an anonymous and aggregated form in order to analyze use of and improve the Products. The Customer represents and warrants to Illumio that: (a) the Customer has all rights, power and authority that are necessary for the Customer's collection, use and processing of the Customer Data as contemplated by the Master Subscription Agreement; and (b) the Customer's use and provision of the Customer Data to Illumio pursuant to the Master Subscription Agreement will not breach any agreement between the Customer and any third party or violate any applicable local, state or federal laws, regulations, orders or rules.

6. Ownership. As between Illumio and the Customer, Illumio owns all worldwide right, title and interest in and to the Products, including all Intellectual Property Rights therein, and the Customer will not obtain any ownership rights or interests therein. No license is granted in the source code of any Products. The Customer will not delete or in any manner alter the copyright, trademark and other proprietary rights notices appearing on the Products as provided to the Customer by Illumio. The Customer will reproduce such notices on all authorized copies it makes of the Products.
7. Customer Obligations. The Customer will at all times provide Illumio with good faith cooperation and assistance and make available such information and personnel as may be reasonably required by Illumio in order to provide the Customer with the Products. The Customer agrees to provide Illumio with feedback and comments and suggestions for improvements to the Products (the "Feedback") and all such Feedback is and will be the sole and exclusive property of Illumio. The Customer will ensure that its Authorized Users comply with the terms and conditions of the Master Subscription Agreement, including the applicable Order Form. The Customer will promptly notify Illumio of any suspected or alleged breach of the Master Subscription Agreement and will cooperate with Illumio with respect to: (a) any investigation by Illumio of any suspected or alleged breach of the Master Subscription Agreement; or (b) any action by Illumio to enforce the terms and conditions of the Master Subscription Agreement. Illumio may suspend or terminate any Authorized User's access to Products without prior notice to the Customer in the event that Illumio reasonably determines that such Authorized User has breached the Master Subscription Agreement. The Customer will, at all times, be responsible for all actions taken under an account of any Authorized User, whether such action was taken by an Authorized User or by another party, and whether such action was authorized by an Authorized User. The Customer is responsible for the security of credentials of each Authorized User, and will not share (and will instruct each Authorized User not to share), such credentials with any other person or entity or otherwise permit any other person or entity access or use of the Products. Illumio may, but shall not be required to, monitor use of any Product to determine the Customer's compliance with the Master Subscription Agreement.

8. Confidentiality.

- (a) The party receiving Confidential Information ("Recipient") agrees: (i) to maintain the Confidential Information of the party disclosing such information ("Discloser") in strict confidence; (ii) not to disclose such Confidential Information to any third parties; and (iii) not to use any such Confidential Information for any purpose other than to exercise its rights or perform its obligations under the Master Subscription Agreement. Recipient will treat Confidential Information of the Discloser with the same degree of care as it accords to its own Confidential Information, but in no event with less than reasonable care. Recipient may disclose the Confidential Information of Discloser to its directors, officers, employees, and subcontractors (collectively, "Representatives"), who have a bona fide need to know such Confidential Information, provided that each such Representative is bound by a legal obligation as protective of the other party's Confidential Information as those set forth herein. Recipient's obligations under this Section will continue in effect for a period of three (3) years from the date of last disclosure of Confidential Information by Discloser, except that Customer's obligations under this Section will continue in effect in perpetuity with respect to Illumio Materials.
- (b) The obligations of Recipient under Section 8(a) will not apply to any Confidential Information that: (i) is now or thereafter becomes generally known or available to the public, through no act or omission on the part of Recipient (or any of its Representatives, Affiliates, or agents) or any third party subject to any use or disclosure restrictions with respect to such Confidential Information; (ii) was known by or lawfully in the possession of Recipient, prior to receiving such information from Discloser, without restriction as to use or disclosure; (iii) is rightfully acquired by Recipient from a third party who has the right to disclose it and who provides it without restriction as to use or disclosure; or (iv) is independently developed by Recipient without access, use or reference to any Confidential Information of Discloser.
- (c) The provisions of Section 8(a) will not restrict Recipient from disclosing Discloser's Confidential Information to the extent required by any law enforcement agencies or regulators or compelled by a court or administrative agency of competent jurisdiction, provided that, to the extent permissible under law, Recipient uses reasonable efforts to give Discloser advance notice of such required disclosure as appropriate in order to enable Discloser to prevent or limit disclosure.
- (d) Upon termination of the Master Subscription Agreement or Support and Maintenance Services, Recipient will promptly return to Discloser or, at Discloser's option, destroy all tangible items and embodiments containing or consisting of Discloser's Confidential Information and all copies thereof and provide written certification of such destruction or return by an authorized person.

- (e) Recipient agrees that, due to the unique nature of the Confidential Information, the unauthorized disclosure or use of the Confidential Information will cause irreparable harm and significant injury to Discloser, the extent of which will be difficult to ascertain and for which there will be no adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, Recipient agrees that Discloser, in addition to any other available remedies, will have the right to an immediate injunction and other equitable relief enjoining any breach or threatened breach of this Section 8, without the necessity of posting any bond or other security. Recipient will notify Discloser in writing immediately upon Recipient's becoming aware of any such breach or threatened breach.

9. Third Party Components. The Products include third party software components, including open source software components under license from third parties (the "Third Party Components"). 10. Indemnification.

- (a) Subject to Section 10(b) hereof, Illumio will defend, indemnify and hold the Customer harmless from and against any damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and other professional fees) that are awarded against the Customer in a final non-appealable judgment or that are agreed to in settlement, to the extent based on a third-party claim that the Customer's use of the Products infringe or misappropriate any U.S. patent, copyright, or trade secret of any third party. Illumio's obligations under this Section will not apply to the extent any claim results from, or is based upon, (i) any combination, operation or use of the Products with any product, system, device, method or data not provided by Illumio, if such claim would have been avoided but for such combination, operation or use; or (ii) the Customer's or an Authorized User's use of the Products other than in accordance with the Master Subscription Agreement. THE FOREGOING PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION SET FORTH ILLUMIO'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE OBLIGATIONS, AND CUSTOMER'S SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDIES, WITH RESPECT TO INFRINGEMENT OR MISAPPROPRIATION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF ANY KIND BY THE PRODUCTS OR ANY USE THEREOF.
- (b) The Customer will defend, indemnify and hold Illumio harmless from and against any damages, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and other professional fees) that are awarded against Illumio or that are agreed to in settlement of a third party claim based on or arising out of: (i) the Customer's, an Authorized User's, or any third party's (acting on behalf of or under control of the Customer) use of the Products (excluding claims for which Illumio is responsible under Section 10(a) hereof); or (ii) the Customer's breach of Section 5 or Section 8 hereof.

(c) As a condition to the parties' respective obligations under this Section, the party seeking indemnification (the "Indemnitee") will: (i) promptly notify the other party (the "Indemnitor") of the claim for which it is seeking indemnification; (ii) grant the Indemnitor sole control of the defense and settlement of the claim; and (iii) provide the Indemnitor, at the Indemnitor's expense, with all assistance, information and authority reasonably required for the defense and settlement of the claim. The Indemnitee has the right to retain counsel, at its expense, to participate in the defense or settlement of any claim. The Indemnitor will not be liable for any settlement or compromise that the Indemnitee enters into without the Indemnitor's prior written consent.

NO ADVICE OR INFORMATION, WHETHER ORAL OR WRITTEN, OBTAINED FROM ILLUMIO OR ELSEWHERE WILL CREATE ANY WARRANTY NOT EXPRESSLY STATED IN THIS MASTER SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT. ILLUMIO DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTY THAT THE PRODUCTS WILL BE ERROR-FREE OR UNINTERRUPTED OR THAT ALL ERRORS WILL BE CORRECTED. THE CUSTOMER ASSUMES SOLE RESPONSIBILITY AND LIABILITY FOR RESULTS OBTAINED OR LACK THEREOF FROM THE USE OF THE PRODUCTS AND ANY CONCLUSIONS DRAWN THEREFROM. IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING LOSS OF USE, DATA, BUSINESS OR PROFITS) OR FOR THE COST OF PROCURING SUBSTITUTE PRODUCTS ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE MASTER SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT OR THE USE, OPERATION OR PERFORMANCE OF THE PRODUCTS, WHETHER SUCH LIABILITY ARISES FROM ANY CLAIM BASED UPON CONTRACT, WARRANTY, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), PRODUCT LIABILITY OR OTHERWISE, AND WHETHER OR NOT A PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH LOSS OR DAMAGE. THE TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF EITHER PARTY ARISING UNDER THIS MASTER SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT, FROM ALL CAUSES OF ACTION AND ALL THEORIES OF LIABILITY, WILL NOT EXCEED THE AMOUNTS PAID TO ILLUMIO BY CUSTOMER IN THE TWELVE-MONTH PERIOD PRECEDING THE CLAIM OR ACTION GIVING RISE TO ANY LIABILITY. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT ILLUMIO HAS SET ITS FEES AND ENTERED INTO THIS MASTER SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT IN RELIANCE UPON THE LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY SPECIFIED HEREIN, WHICH

13. Data Processing. The processing of personal data under this Master Subscription Agreement is governed by the Data Processing Supplemental Terms, unless Illumio already has a signed data processing agreement with Customer for such Products; in which case, the signed version governs the processing of personal data.
14. Subscription Term. Subject to the Customer's compliance with the terms and conditions of the Master Subscription Agreement, the Master Subscription Agreement will be in effect for as long as the Customer is licensed to use any Product pursuant to an Order Form. Each party will have the right to terminate the Master Subscription Agreement if the other party breaches any material term of the Master Subscription Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof. The initial subscription term for the use of each Product will be set forth in the Order Form (the "Initial Subscription Term"). The Initial Subscription Term shall automatically be extended for consecutive additional subscription terms of one (1) year (each, a "Renewal Subscription Term," and together with Initial Subscription Term, the "Subscription Term"), unless in any such case a party delivers, at least sixty (60) days before the expiration of the Initial Subscription Term or Renewal Subscription Term, as applicable, written notice to the other party of its intent not to renew or extend such Initial Subscription Term or Renewal Subscription Term, as applicable. Each party will have the right to terminate an individual Order Form if the other party breaches any material term of such Order Form and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof. For the avoidance of doubt, termination of an Order Form shall not affect any other Products that the Customer has purchased under any other Order Form(s). Upon termination of any Order Form or part thereof before end of the Subscription Term: (a) Illumio will have no obligation to refund any Fees or other amounts received from the Customer during the Subscription Term; and (b) the Customer shall remain obligated to pay all Fees payable under an Order Form for the full Subscription Term. Upon any termination or expiration of the Master Subscription Agreement or any Order Form for any reason, all licenses granted to the Customer in the Master Subscription Agreement and in all Order Forms will terminate immediately and: (i) the Customer will (A) immediately cease use of the Products, and (B) promptly return to Illumio the On-Premises Software and Documentation and all copies and portions thereof, in all forms and types of media; (ii) each party will promptly destroy or return to the other party all Confidential Information of the other party in its possession or control; and (iii) the Customer will provide Illumio with an officer's written certification, certifying to the Customer's compliance with the foregoing. The rights and obligations of Illumio and the Customer contained in Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 will survive the expiration or termination of the Master Subscription Agreement.

15. Affiliates. Affiliates of the Customer may purchase Products by executing an Order Form referencing the then-existing Master Subscription Agreement by and between the Customer and Illumio, provided that the terms and conditions of such Master Subscription Agreement shall govern all such Order Forms and such Affiliate complies with such terms and conditions. The Customer shall be responsible and remain liable for the performance of any obligations of the Affiliate in connection with any Order Form executed by such Affiliate, except that an Affiliate may enter into a separate Master Subscription Agreement with Illumio, in which case the Customer shall not be responsible or liable for the performance of such obligations.

Any legal action or proceeding arising under the Master Subscription Agreement will be brought exclusively in the federal or state courts located in the Northern District of California and the parties hereby irrevocably consent to the personal jurisdiction and venue therein. The Customer may not assign or transfer the Master Subscription Agreement or any rights granted hereunder, by operation of law or otherwise, without Illumio’s prior written consent, and any attempt by the Customer to do so without such consent will be void. Subject to the foregoing, the Master Subscription Agreement will bind and inure to the benefit of each party’s successors and permitted assigns. Illumio may freely assign the Master Subscription Agreement. Except as expressly set forth in the Master Subscription Agreement, the exercise by either party of any of its remedies under the Master Subscription Agreement will be without prejudice to its other remedies under the Master Subscription Agreement or otherwise. All notices or approvals required or permitted under the Master Subscription Agreement will be in writing and delivered by confirmed facsimile transmission, by overnight delivery service, or by certified mail, and in each instance will be deemed given upon receipt. All notices or approvals will be sent to the addresses set forth in the applicable Order Form or to such other address as may be specified by either party to the other in accordance with the Master Subscription Agreement. signed by authorized representatives of both parties. Neither party will be responsible for any failure or delay in its performance under the Master Subscription Agreement (except for any payment obligations) due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, labor disputes, strikes, lockouts, shortages of or inability to obtain labor, energy, raw materials or supplies, war, terrorism, riot, acts of God or governmental action. In the event any of the provisions of this Master Subscription Agreement are found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be affected, and such remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect. Customer agrees to comply fully with all relevant export laws and regulations, including those of the United States to ensure that no Products are: (a) exported or re-exported directly or indirectly in violation of such export laws; or (b) used for any purposes prohibited by such export laws, including but not limited to nuclear, chemical or biological weapons proliferation. This Master Subscription Agreement is the complete and exclusive understanding and agreement between the parties regarding its subject matter, and supersedes all proposals, understandings or communications between the parties, oral or written, regarding such subject matter. In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions of the Master Subscription Agreement and any Order Form, the Master Subscription Agreement will control unless otherwise expressly set forth in the applicable Order Form. In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions of the Master Subscription Agreement and any other agreement executed by the parties relating to the Products, the other agreement will control unless otherwise expressly set forth in the applicable Order Form that the other agreement is superseded or amended. The parties to the Master Subscription Agreement are independent contractors and the Master Subscription Agreement will not establish any relationship of partnership, joint venture, employment, franchise, or agency between the parties. Supplemental Terms - Data Processing

The following supplemental terms (the “Supplemental Terms”) are effective as of the effective date of the relevant Order Form and are entered into by and between Illumio and Customer and will apply to and govern the processing of personal data on behalf of the Customer in connection with the delivery of the Products. Capitalized terms not defined herein will have the meaning set forth in the Master Subscription Agreement, except that terms such as “personal data breach,” “supervisory authority,” “processor,” “data subject,” etc., shall have the definitions specified in the Data Protection Law.

Introduction

Customer intends to send personal data from individuals in the EU (the “EU Personal Data”) as part of the data processed by Illumio on its behalf in connection with the delivery of the Products. With respect to EU Personal Data, the Customer is the data controller and Illumio is the data processor. Each party shall strive to comply with their respective obligations under. As it relates to EU Personal Data, the parties hereby agree: (a) Illumio shall only process EU Personal Data upon instructions from Customer, including those in the Master Subscription Agreement and Customer's configuration of the Products; (b) Illumio's data centers are located in the United States and Customer hereby instructs Illumio to process EU Personal Data in the United States and in the European Union as needed to deliver the Products or as otherwise instructed by Customer; (c) Illumio shall ensure that persons authorized to process EU Personal Data are committed to a duty of confidentiality; and (d) Illumio shall implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure that the level of security is appropriate to the risk in the performance monitoring and the analytics processing involved in the Products.

Sub-processors

Customer acknowledges and agrees that Illumio may engage third party sub-processors to process EU Personal Data in connection with the provision of the Products. Provided that Customer signs up for notifications on the Illumio support portal, Illumio shall provide prior notice of any new sub-processors. After being notified, Customer will have ten (10) business days to notify Illumio in writing of any reasonable objection it has to the new sub-processor(s). Failure to notify Illumio within this time frame will be deemed approval of the new sub-processor(s). In the event Customer provides reasonable objection, Illumio will use reasonable efforts to make a change in the configuration available to avoid processing of EU Personal Data by such sub-processor. If Illumio is unable to make available such a change within a reasonable period of time, which shall not exceed ninety (90) days, Customer may terminate the applicable Order Form with respect to the affected Products that cannot be provided without use of the rejected sub-processor. In the event Illumio engages a sub-processor to carry out specific processing activities on behalf of Customer, Illumio shall place the same or similar obligations on such sub-processor to require appropriate technical and organizational measures to meet the requirements of the Data Protection Law. Where such additional processor fails to fulfill its data protection obligations, Illumio shall remain fully liable to Customer for the performance of that processor's obligations.

Assistance

Taking into account the nature of the processing, Illumio will use reasonable efforts to assist Customer in responding to requests by data subjects to exercise data subject rights. Taking into account the nature of the processing and information available to Illumio, Illumio will use reasonable efforts to assist the Customer in ensuring compliance with Customer's obligations under Art 32-36 of the Data Protection Law, including: (a) implementing appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk; (b) taking steps to ensure that any natural person with access to EU Personal Data does not process such EU Personal Data except on instruction; (c) notifying the Customer without undue delay after becoming aware of a personal data breach; (d) assisting Customer in its data protection impact assessments, as appropriate and at Customer's expense; and (e) assisting Customer in its consultation with regulators, as appropriate and at Customer's expense.

Return

Upon receipt of Customer's written request, Illumio shall return EU Personal Data or close Customer's account and delete all EU Personal Data.

Inspection

Upon receipt of Customer's written request, Illumio will make available to Customer information reasonably necessary to demonstrate compliance with the obligations in these Supplemental Terms and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by Customer or another auditor mandated by Customer to the extent required by law. Customer shall give Illumio at least ninety (90) days' prior written notice and promptly reimburse Illumio for expenses incurred in connection with audits conducted by Customer or a third-party auditor beyond those that Illumio already conducts, including but not limited to, time reasonably expended for such audits at Illumio's then-current professional services rates (made available to Customer upon request). Prior to commencement of work, Illumio and Customer shall mutually agree upon scope, timing, and duration of the work. Customer shall promptly notify Illumio of any non-compliance discovered during the course of any audit; and Illumio will inform Customer if it becomes aware of an instruction by Customer that, in Illumio's opinion, infringes the Data Protection Law or other applicable data protection law.

Standard Clauses

Customer acknowledges that Illumio is located in the United States and may process EU Personal Data from its offices and data centers located in the United States. To ensure such processing is in accordance with applicable Data Protection Law, the parties hereby enter into the standard contractual clauses below (the "Standard Clauses"). In the event the Standard Clauses become insufficient under Data Protection Law, the parties shall use reasonable efforts to utilize an alternative method of adequacy for transfer.

The Standard Clauses apply to Customers established in the European Economic Area ("EEA") or Switzerland as the data controller. In the event that Customer's use of Products results in processing of EU Personal Data of Customer's affiliates that are also established in the EEA or Switzerland and data controllers, such affiliates shall be deemed "data exporters" under the Standard Clauses, provided that in all cases, Illumio's aggregate liability to Customer and its affiliates will be subject to the limitations of liability set out below.

Customer shall in its use of the Products only process EU Personal Data in accordance with applicable law and shall not cause Illumio to be in violation of applicable laws. Illumio shall process EU Personal Data in accordance with Customer's instruction. By contracting with Illumio for the provision of the Products, Customer (through its use and configuration of the Products and/or Services) is directing Illumio to obtain and collect certain EU Personal Data. For purposes of Clause 5(a) of the Standard Clauses, the Customer instructs Illumio to: (a) process the EU Personal Data in accordance with the Master Subscription Agreement; and (b) process EU Personal Data initiated by Customer and its Authorized Users in their use of the Products during the Term. The parties agree that Illumio may remove or redact any commercial information and other terms not related to data protection from copies of sub-processor agreements provided to the Customer pursuant to Clause 5(j) of the Standard Clauses from such agreements before providing them to Customer; and that such copies will be provided by Illumio only after its receipt of reasonably detailed written request by Customer. The parties agree that Illumio shall provide the certification of deletion of EU Personal Data described in Clause 12(1) of the Standard Clauses only upon receipt of Customer's written request. The parties agree that all liabilities between Illumio and Customer (including Customer affiliates) will be subject to the terms of the Master Subscription Agreement (including but not limited to limitation of liability provisions), except that no limitations of liability will apply to any liability that Illumio may have to data subjects under the third-party rights provisions of the Standard Clauses. Subject to the preceding sentence, Customer affiliates shall be granted certain rights in relation to Illumio's obligations reserved for the benefit of Customer hereunder, and data subjects are granted third party rights under the Standard Clauses. All other third-party rights are excluded. The parties hereby agree that these Supplemental Terms supersede any conflicting or inconsistent provisions in the Master Subscription Agreement related to data protection and, in the event of ambiguity, these Supplemental Terms will prevail.

Clause 2

Details of the transfer

The details of the transfer and in particular the special categories of personal data where applicable are specified in Appendix 1 which forms an integral part of the Clauses.

Clause 3

Third-party beneficiary clause

2. The data subject can enforce against the data importer this Clause, Clause 5(a) to (e) and (g), Clause 6, Clause 7, Clause 8(2), and Clauses 9 to 12, in cases where the data exporter has factually disappeared or has ceased to exist in law unless any successor entity has assumed the entire legal obligations of the data exporter by contract or by operation of law, as a result of which it takes on the rights and obligations of the data exporter, in which case the data subject can enforce them against such entity.
3. The data subject can enforce against the subprocessor this Clause, Clause 5(a) to (e) and (g), Clause 6, Clause 7, Clause 8(2), and Clauses 9 to 12, in cases where both the data exporter and the data importer have factually disappeared or ceased to exist in law or have become insolvent, unless any successor entity has assumed the entire legal obligations of the data exporter by contract or by operation of law as a result of which it takes on the rights and obligations of the data exporter, in which case the data subject can enforce them against such entity. Such third-party liability of the subprocessor shall be limited to its own processing operations under the Clauses.
4. The parties do not object to a data subject being represented by an association or other body if the data subject so expressly wishes and if permitted by national law.

Clause 4

Obligations of the data exporter

The data exporter agrees and warrants:

- (a) that the processing, including the transfer itself, of the personal data has been and will continue to be carried out in accordance with the relevant provisions of the applicable data protection law (and, where applicable, has been notified to the relevant authorities of the Member State where the data exporter is established) and does not violate the relevant provisions of that State;

(b) that it has instructed and throughout the duration of the personal data processing services will instruct the data importer to process the personal data transferred only on the data exporter's behalf and in accordance with the applicable data protection law and the Clauses;

(c) that the data importer will provide sufficient technical and organizational security measures;

(d) that after assessment of the requirements of the applicable data protection law, the security measures are appropriate to protect personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access, in particular where the processing involves the transmission of data over a network, and against all other unlawful forms of processing, and that these measures ensure a level of security appropriate to the risks presented by the processing and the nature of the data to be protected having regard to the state of the art and the cost of their implementation;

(e) that it will ensure compliance with the security measures;

(f) that, if the transfer involves special categories of data, the data subject has been informed or will be informed before, or as soon as possible after, the transfer that its data could be transmitted to a third country not providing adequate protection within the meaning of Directive 95/46/EC;

(g) to forward any notification received from the data importer or any subprocessor pursuant to Clause 5(b) and Clause 8(3) to the data protection supervisory authority if the data exporter decides to continue the transfer or to lift the suspension;

(h) to make available to the data subjects upon request a copy of the Clauses, with the exception of Appendix 2, and a summary description of the security measures, as well as a copy of any contract for subprocessing services which has to be made in accordance with the Clauses, unless the Clauses or the contract contain commercial information, in which case it may remove such commercial information;

(i) that, in the event of subprocessing, the processing activity is carried out in accordance with Clause 11 by a subprocessor providing at least the same level of protection for the personal data and the rights of data subject as the data importer under the Clauses; and

(j) that it will ensure compliance with Clause 4(a) to (i).

Clause 5

Obligations of the data importer

The data importer agrees and warrants:

(a) to process the personal data only on behalf of the data exporter and in compliance with its instructions and the Clauses; if it cannot provide such compliance for whatever reasons, it agrees to inform promptly the data exporter of its inability to comply, in which case the data exporter is entitled to suspend the transfer of data and/or terminate the contract;

(b) that it has no reason to believe that the legislation applicable to it prevents it from fulfilling the instructions received from the data exporter and its obligations under the contract and that in the event of a change in this legislation which is likely to have a substantial adverse effect on the warranties and obligations provided by the Clauses, it will promptly notify the change to the data exporter as soon as it is aware, in which case the data exporter is entitled to suspend the transfer of data and/or terminate the contract;

(c) that it has implemented the technical and organizational security measures specified in Appendix 2 before processing the personal data transferred;

(d) that it will promptly notify the data exporter about:

(i) any legally binding request for disclosure of the personal data by a law enforcement authority unless otherwise prohibited, such as a prohibition under criminal law to preserve the confidentiality of a law enforcement investigation,

(ii) any accidental or unauthorized access, and

(iii) any request received directly from the data subjects without responding to that request, unless it has been otherwise authorized to do so;

(e) to deal promptly and properly with all inquiries from the data exporter relating to its processing of the personal data subject to the transfer and to abide by the advice of the supervisory authority with regard to the processing of the data transferred;

(f) at the request of the data exporter to submit its data processing facilities for audit of the processing activities covered by the Clauses which shall be carried out by the data exporter or an inspection body composed of independent members and in possession of the required professional qualifications bound by a duty of confidentiality, selected by the data exporter, where applicable, in agreement with the supervisory authority;

(g) to make available to the data subject upon request a copy of the Clauses, or any existing contract for subprocessing, unless the Clauses or contract contain commercial information, in which case it may remove such commercial information, with the exception of Appendix 2 which shall be replaced by a summary description of the security measures in those cases where the data subject is unable to obtain a copy from the data exporter;

(h) that, in the event of subprocessing, it has previously informed the data exporter and obtained its prior written consent;

(i) that the processing services by the subprocessor will be carried out in accordance with Clause 11;

(j) to send promptly a copy of any subprocessor agreement it concludes under the Clauses to the data exporter.

Clause 6

Liability

1. The parties agree that any data subject, who has suffered damage as a result of any breach of the obligations referred to in Clause 3 or in Clause 11 by any party or subprocessor is entitled to receive compensation from the data exporter for the damage suffered.
2. If a data subject is not able to bring a claim for compensation in accordance with paragraph 1 against the data exporter, arising out of a breach by the data importer or his subprocessor of any of their obligations referred to in Clause 3 or in Clause 11, because the data exporter has factually disappeared or ceased to exist in law or has become insolvent, the data importer agrees that the data subject may issue a claim against the data importer as if it were the data exporter, unless any successor entity has assumed the entire legal obligations of the data exporter by contract or by operation of law, in which case the data subject can enforce its rights against such entity. The data importer may not rely on a breach by a subprocessor of its obligations in order to avoid its own liabilities.
3. If a data subject is not able to bring a claim against the data exporter or the data importer referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2, arising out of a breach by the subprocessor of any of their obligations referred to in Clause 3 or in Clause 11 because both the data exporter and the data importer have factually disappeared or ceased to exist in law or have become insolvent, the subprocessor agrees that the data subject may issue a claim against the data subprocessor with regard to its own processing operations under the Clauses as if it were the data exporter or the data importer, unless any successor entity has assumed the entire legal obligations of the data exporter or data importer by contract or by operation of law, in which case the data subject can enforce its rights against such entity. The liability of the subprocessor shall be limited to its own processing operations under the Clauses.

Clause 7

Mediation and jurisdiction

The data importer agrees that if the data subject invokes against it third-party beneficiary rights and/or claims compensation for damages under the Clauses, the data importer will accept the decision of the data subject:

- (a) to refer the dispute to mediation, by an independent person or, where applicable, by the supervisory authority;
- (b) to refer the dispute to the courts in the Member State in which the data exporter is established.

1. The parties agree that the choice made by the data subject will not prejudice its substantive or procedural rights to seek remedies in accordance with other provisions of national or international law.

Clause 8

Cooperation with supervisory authorities

1. The data exporter agrees to deposit a copy of this contract with the supervisory authority if it so requests or if such deposit is required under the applicable data protection law.
2. The parties agree that the supervisory authority has the right to conduct an audit of the data importer, and of any subprocessor, which has the same scope and is subject to the same conditions as would apply to an audit of the data exporter under the applicable data protection law.
3. The data importer shall promptly inform the data exporter about the existence of legislation applicable to it or any subprocessor preventing the conduct of an audit of the data importer, or any subprocessor, pursuant to paragraph 2. In such a case the data exporter shall be entitled to take the measures foreseen in Clause 5 (b).

Clause 9

Governing Law

The Clauses shall be governed by the law of the Member State in which the data exporter is established.

Clause 10

Variation of the contract

The parties undertake not to vary or modify the Clauses. This does not preclude the parties from adding clauses on business related issues where required as long as they do not contradict the Clause.

Clause 11

Subprocessing

1. The data importer shall not subcontract any of its processing operations performed on behalf of the data exporter under the Clauses without the prior written consent of the data exporter. Where the data importer subcontracts its obligations under the Clauses, with the consent of the data exporter, it shall do so only by way of a written agreement with the subprocessor which imposes the same obligations on the subprocessor as are imposed on the data importer under the Clauses. Where the subprocessor fails to fulfil its data protection obligations under such written agreement the data importer shall remain fully liable to the data exporter for the performance of the subprocessor's obligations under such agreement.

2. The prior written contract between the data importer and the subprocessor shall also provide for a third-party beneficiary clause as laid down in Clause 3 for cases where the data subject is not able to bring the claim for compensation referred to in paragraph 1 of Clause 6 against the data exporter or the data importer because they have factually disappeared or have ceased to exist in law or have become insolvent and no successor entity has assumed the entire legal obligations of the data exporter or data importer by contract or by operation of law. Such third-party liability of the subprocessor shall be limited to its own processing operations under the Clauses.
3. The provisions relating to data protection aspects for subprocessing of the contract referred to in paragraph 1 shall be governed by the law of the Member State in which the data exporter is established.
4. The data exporter shall keep a list of subprocessing agreements concluded under the Clauses and notified by the data importer pursuant to Clause 5 (j), which shall be updated at least once a year. The list shall be available to the data exporter's data protection supervisory authority.

Clause 12

Obligation after the termination of personal data processing services

1. The parties agree that on the termination of the provision of data processing services, the data importer and the subprocessor shall, at the choice of the data exporter, return all the personal data transferred and the copies thereof to the data exporter or shall destroy all the personal data and certify to the data exporter that it has done so, unless legislation imposed upon the data importer prevents it from returning or destroying all or part of the personal data transferred. In that case, the data importer warrants that it will guarantee the confidentiality of the personal data transferred and will not actively process the personal data transferred anymore.
2. The data importer and the subprocessor warrant that upon request of the data exporter and/or of the supervisory authority, it will submit its data processing facilities for an audit of the measures referred to in paragraph 1.
