THE WORLD'S MOST FAMOUS PRIVATE NATURE RESERVE

Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, and one of the most beautiful locations on O'ahu, Kualoa is a 4000 acre private nature reserve protected from development through the stewardship of the descendants of Dr Gerrit Judd, who acquired the land from King Kamehameha III in 1850.

Kualoa is home to a working cattle ranch with 100% grass fed beef, as well as diversified agriculture and aquaculture farming operations.

Mentioned in numerous ancient Hawaiian legends, with a rich history of ranching and many Paniolo (Hawaiian Cowboy) legends, as well as the many legendary Hollywood movies and stars that have visited, Kualoa is a place for all to enjoy.

Kualoa is located 22 miles from Waikiki along one of O'ahu's most scenic drives. Round-trip transportation is available from Waikiki for $10 per person with package tours, and $15 per person with individual tours.

The Bus (Honolulu City Bus) also offers an inexpensive option which stops in front of the Kualoa Visitor Center. The ride takes about 2 hours to get from Waikiki to Kualoa. From Ala Moana Center, take the Route 55 Bus Westbound to Haleiwa (55 KANEHOE - NORTH SHORE HALEIWA).

A few tips for your visit to Kualoa: Bring water (or purchase at our General Store), wear closed toe shoes, and wear sunblock.
