("RapidDeploy")

THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION MANUAL

("Manual")

1. PREAMBLE

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 ("PAIA") came into operation on 9 March 2001 within the Republic of South Africa. PAIA seeks, among other things, to give effect to the Constitutional right of access to any information held by the State or by any other person where such information is required for the exercise or protection of any right and gives natural and juristic persons the right of access to records held by either a private or public body, subject to certain limitations, in order to enable them to exercise or protect their rights. Where a request is made in terms of PAIA to a private body, that private body must disclose the information if the requester is able to show that the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights, and provided that no grounds of refusal contained in PAIA are applicable. PAIA sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to information requests.

Section 51 of PAIA obliges private bodies to compile a manual to enable a person to obtain access to information held by such private body and stipulates the minimum requirements that the manual has to comply with.

This Manual constitutes RapidDeploy's PAIA manual. This Manual is compiled in accordance with section 51 of PAIA as amended by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 ("POPIA"), which gives effect to everyone's Constitutional right to privacy. POPIA promotes the protection of personal information processed by public and private bodies, including certain conditions so as to establish minimum requirements for the processing of personal information. POPIA amends certain provisions of PAIA, balancing the need for access to information against the need to ensure the protection of personal information by providing for the establishment of an Information Regulator to exercise certain powers and perform certain duties and functions in terms of POPIA and PAIA, providing for the issuing of codes of conduct and providing for the rights of persons regarding unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision making in order to regulate the flow of personal information and to provide for matters concerned therewith.

This PAIA manual also includes information on the submission of objections to the processing of personal information and requests to delete or destroy personal information or records thereof in terms of POPIA.

3. INFORMATION REGULATORS GUIDE

An official Guide has been compiled which contains information to assist a person wishing to exercise a right of access to information in terms of PAIA and POPIA. This Guide is made available by the Information Regulator (established in terms of POPIA). Copies of the updated Guide are available from Information Regulator and the Information Officer free of charge. Any request for public inspection of the Guide at the office of the Information Officer or a request for a copy of the Guide from the Information Officer must substantially correspond with Form 1 of Annexure A to Government Notice No. R.757 dated 27 August 2021 2021 promulgated under the PAIA Regulations. Please refer to Annexure C.

Any enquiries regarding the Guide should be directed to:

5. OBJECTIVES OF THIS MANUAL

The objectives of this Manual are:

- to provide a list of all records held by the legal entity;
- to set out the requirements with regard to who may request information in terms of PAIA as
- well as the grounds on which a request may be denied;
- to define the manner and form in which a request for information must be submitted; and
- to comply with the additional requirements imposed by POPIA.

6. ENTRY POINT FOR REQUESTS

PAIA provides that a person may only make a request for information, if the information is required for the exercise or protection of a legitimate right.

Information will therefore not be furnished unless a person provides sufficient particulars to enable RapidDeploy to identify the right that the requester is seeking to protect as well as an explanation as to why the requested information is required for the exercise or protection of that right. The exercise of an individual's rights is subject to justifiable limitations, including the reasonable protection of privacy, commercial confidentiality and effective, efficient and good governance. PAIA and the request procedure contained in this Manual may not be used for access to a record for criminal or civil proceedings, nor should information be requested after the commencement of such proceedings.

The Information Officer has been delegated with the task of receiving and co-ordinating all requests for access to records in terms of PAIA, in order to ensure proper compliance with PAIA and POPIA.

The Information Officer will facilitate the liaison with the internal legal team on all of these requests.

All requests in terms of PAIA and this Manual must be addressed to the Information Officer using the details in paragraph 3 above.

7. AUTOMATICALLY AVAILABLE INFORMATION

Information that is obtainable via the RapidDeploy website about RapidDeploy is automatically available and need not be formally requested in terms of this Manual.

The following categories of records are automatically available for inspection, purchase or photocopying:

 Personal information relating to all categories of data subjects are transferred to and hosted within certain European and US software and business productivity tool solutions as used by RapidDeploy. All such information is only available to authorised RapidDeploy staff and is not accessible to the service providers as governed by their respective Data Processing Agreements which have been aligned to POPIA, CCPA and GDPR compliance.

8.6. A general description of information security measures to be implemented by RapidDeploy

RapidDeploy believes in respecting the privacy of its clients, users, and the public. Furthermore, we strive to maintain compliance with the laws, industry standards, and best practices applicable to our handling of personal data. To that end, RapidDeploy has created this policy to establish the key administrative, procedural, and technical controls that RapidDeploy implements in relation to the handling of personal data.

As an international organization, RapidDeploy must comply with various international laws, rules, and regulations, as well as private standards and contractual obligations. For example, we and our personnel must comply with laws such as:

- The South African Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA).
- EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
- California Consumer Protection Act (CCPA)
- US Privacy Act.
- Criminal Justice Information System (CJIS) Security Policy.
- Other applicable laws of South Africa, the United States, and European Union (including laws of its Member States under the GDPR); and
- Relevant national and state legislation, directives and public safety practices affecting our clients, requiring us to implement certain controls and procedures to ensure that we protect the information we process on their behalf.

Considering the commitment to the above laws and regulations, RapidDeploy takes extensive information security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of personal information in our possession. RapidDeploy takes appropriate technical and organisational measures designed to ensure that personal data remains confidential and secure against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage.

10. CATEGORIES OF RECORDS AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST

RapidDeploy maintain records on the categories and subject matters listed below. Please note that recording a category or subject matter in this Manual does not imply that a request for access to such records would be honoured. All requests for access will be evaluated on a case by case basis in accordance with the provisions of PAIA.

Please note further that many of the records held by RapidDeploy are those of third parties, such as clients and employees, and RapidDeploy takes the protection of third-party confidential information very seriously. In particular, where RapidDeploy acts as professional advisors to clients, many of the records held are confidential and others are the property of the client and not of RapidDeploy. For further information on the grounds of refusal of access to a record please see paragraph 11.5 below. Requests for access to these records will be considered very carefully. Please ensure that requests for such records are carefully motivated.

Category of records	Records
Internal records The records listed pertain to RapidDeploy's own affairs	 Memoranda and Articles of Association Financial records Operational records Intellectual property Marketing records Internal correspondence Service records Statutory records Internal policies and procedures Minutes of meetings;
Personnel records For the purposes of this section, "personnel" means any person who works for or provides services to or on behalf of RapidDeploy and receives or is entitled to receive any remuneration and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting the business of RapidDeploy. This includes partners, directors, all permanent, temporary and part-time staff as well as consultants and contract workers.	Any personal records provided to us by our personnel Any records a third party has provided to us about any of their personnel Conditions of employment and other personnel-related contractual and quasi legal record Employment policies and procedures Internal evaluation and disciplinary records; and Other internal records and correspondence.

Category of records	Records
Other third-party records Records are kept in respect of other parties, including without limitation joint ventures and consortia to which RapidDeploy is a party, contractors and sub-contractors, suppliers, service providers, and providers of information regarding general market conditions. In addition, such other parties may possess records which can be said to belong to RapidDeploy.	 Contracts with the client and between the client and other persons; Personnel, client, or RapidDeploy records which are held by another party as opposed to being held by RapidDeploy; and Records held by RapidDeploy pertaining to other parties, including financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party, and records third parties have provided about the contractors or suppliers.
Other records	 Information relating to RapidDeploy; and Research information belonging to RapidDeploy or carried out on behalf of a third party.

11. REQUEST PROCEDURE

11.1. Completion of the prescribed form

- 1.1.1. Any request for access to a record in terms of PAIA must substantially correspond with Form 2 of Annexure A to Government Notice No. R.757 dated 27 August 2021 promulgated under the PAIA Regulations and should be specific in terms of the record requested. Please refer to Annexure A.
- 1.1.2. A request for access to information which does not comply with the formalities as prescribed by PAIA will be returned to you.
- 1.1.3. POPIA provides that a data subject may, upon proof of identity, request RapidDeploy to confirm, free of charge, all the information it holds about the data subject and may request access to such information, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information.
- 1.1.4. POPIA also provides that where the data subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her, RapidDeploy must provide the data subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service and may require that the data subject pays a deposit for all or part of the fee.

- 1.1.5. Grounds for refusal of the data subject's request are set out in PAIA and are discussed below.
- 1.1.6. POPIA provides that a data subject may object, at any time, to the processing of personal information by RapidDeploy, on reasonable grounds relating to his/her particular situation, unless legislation provides for such processing. The data subject must complete the prescribed form attached hereto as Annexure E and submit it to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic mail address set out above.
- 1.1.7. A data subject may also request RapidDeploy to correct or delete personal information about the data subject in its possession or under its control that is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading or obtained unlawfully; or destroy or delete a record of personal information about the data subject that RapidDeploy is no longer authorised to retain records in terms of POPIA's retention and restriction of records provisions.
- 1.1.8. A data subject that wishes to request a correction or deletion of personal information or the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information must submit a request to the Information Officer at the postal or physical address, facsimile number or electronic mail address set out above on the form attached hereto as Annexure F.

11.2. Proof of identity

Proof of identity is required to authenticate your identity and the request. You will, in addition to this prescribed form, be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of your identity document or other legal forms of identity.

11.3. Payment of the prescribed fees

There are two categories of fees which are payable:

- The request fee: R140
- The access fee: This is calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation costs, as well as postal costs. These fees are set out in Appendix B.

Section 54 of PAIA entitles RapidDeploy to levy a charge or to request a fee to enable it to recover the cost of processing a request and providing access to records. The fees that may be charged are set out in Annexure B of Government Notice No. R.757 dated 27 August 2021 promulgated under the PAIA Regulations. Please refer to Annexure D

Where a decision to grant a request has been taken, the record will not be disclosed until the necessary fees have been paid in full.

11.4. Timelines for consideration of a request for access

Requests will be processed within 30 (thirty) days, unless the request contains considerations that are of such a nature that an extension of the time limit is needed.

The Information Officer will inform the requester of the decision, and the fees payable (if applicable) on a form that corresponds substantially with Form 3 of Annexure A to Government Notice No. R.757 dated 27 August 2021 promulgated under the PAIA Regulations

Should an extension be required, you will be notified, together with reasons explaining why the extension is necessary.

11.5. Grounds for refusal of access and protection of information

There are various grounds upon which a request for access to a record may be refused.

These grounds include:

- the protection of personal information of a third person (who is a natural person) from unreasonable disclosure,
- the protection of commercial information of a third party (for example: trade secrets; financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of a third party),
- if disclosure would result in the breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party,
- if disclosure would jeopardise the safety of an individual or prejudice or impair certain property rights of a third person,
- if the record was produced during legal proceedings, unless that legal privilege has been waived,
- if the record contains trade secrets, financial or sensitive information or any information that would put RapidDeploy (at a disadvantage in negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition); and/or
- if the record contains information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or by RapidDeploy.

Section 70 PAIA contains an overriding provision. Disclosure of a record is compulsory if it would reveal (i) a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with the law; or (ii) there is an imminent and serious public safety or environmental risk; and (iii) the public interest in the disclosure of the record in question clearly outweighs the harm contemplated by its disclosure.

If the request for access to information affects a third party, then such third party must first be informed within 21 (twenty one) days of receipt of the request. The third party would then have a further 21 (twenty one) days to make representations and/or submissions regarding the granting of access to the record.

12. REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO A REQUESTER ON REFUSAL OF ACCESS

If the Information Officer decides to grant you access to the particular record, such access must be granted within 30 (thirty) days of being informed of the decision.

There is no internal appeal procedure that may be followed after a request to access information has been refused. The decision made by the Information Officer is final. In the event that you are not satisfied with the outcome of the request, you are entitled to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to take the matter further.

Where a third party is affected by the request for access and the Information Officer has decided to grant you access to the record, the third party has 30 (thirty) days in which to appeal the decision in a court of competent jurisdiction. If no appeal has been lodged by the third party within 30 (thirty) days, you must be granted access to the record.

13. AVAILABILITY OF THIS MANUAL

Copies of this Manual are available for inspection, free of charge, at the offices of RapidDeploy and at https://www.rapiddeploy.com/PAIA-Manual.
