A veterinarian is a doctor who helps keep animals healthy and cares for those that are sick or hurt.

What they do
- Examine animals and run tests to identify a sickness or injury.
- Give shots to help animals stay healthy.
- Give medicine to cure animals that are sick.
- Perform operations on animals to fix an injury.

Where they work
- Veterinarian Offices
- Farms and Ranches
- Research Facilities
- Zoos

Cool tools they use
- Stethoscopes
- Microscopes
- Thermometers
- X-Ray Machines

Subjects they study
English Language Arts, Health, Math, and Science