

Richard Carter, M.D.

EDUCATION

Baylor College of Medicine Internal Medicine/Pediatrics Residency Program, Houston, Texas, 2004 – 2007

Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, Texas, M.D., May 2003

City College of New York, New York, NY Pre-med coursework, May 1998

Harlem Family Institute, New York, New York, Certificate in Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy, May 1998

Union Theological Seminary, New York, New York, M. Div., May 1995

Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts, B.A. in Philosophy and Political Science (minor in Classics), June 1991

WORK

Tennessee Valley Primary Care (Summit Medical Group), Jefferson City, Tennessee, Physician (August 2007 – present)

Covenant Home Care and Hospice, Co-director (April 2013 – October 2017)

Church of the Good Shepherd, Priest (May 2012 – present); Deacon (June 2011 – May 2012)

St. Ann/St. George Church, Brooklyn, New York, Pastoral Associate (June 1994 – June 1999)

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Married to Marjorie Thigpen-Carter; three children