NOTABLE WOLFPACK ALUMNI

Francis Nault - University of Maine

Francis was a dominant force in Connecticut Ice Hockey before playing for 3 Seasons and over 100 games at the University of Maine. In his final season at Maine he played in the National Championship. Following a distinguished career there Francis played professionally across the ECHL, AHL, and other professional leagues in Canada.

Nick Bonino - 2 Time Stanley Cup Champion and NCAA National Champion

One of Connecticut's most successful ice hockey players ever, Nick played for the WolfPack before moving on to Avon Old Farms where he won the New England Prep Championship, Boston University where he won a National Championship, and then on to the NHL where he won back-to-back Stanley Cups. Nick is now a member of the San Jose Sharks. Nick trains with Hartford Junior WolfPack Strength and Conditioning Coach Pete Asadorian in the off season.

Nick Capone - University of Connecticut - Tampa Bay Lightning

Nick played for some of the most competitive WolfPack teams in the entire history of the organization before moving on to compete in Prep School, followed by the USHL, and ultimately to the University of Connecticut. Nick was drafted by the Tampa Bay Lightning in the 2020 NHL Entry Draft.

Molly Jordan - Boston College - Team USA

Molly has quickly become one of Connecticut's most accomplished girls ice hockey players. A major contributor to the 14U Junior Lady WolfPack National Championship run Molly turned that into playing at Loomis Chaffee, committing to Boston College, and most recently represented Team USA at the IIHF Under-18 Women's World Championship in 2023 (Bronze) and 2022 (Silver).
