Click Here

Ink master guest judges names

Ink master judges. Ink master guest judges list. Guest judges on ink master.

The 14th season of Ink Master premiered on Paramount+ September 7, 2022 and concluded November 2, 2022. Hosted by Joel Madden, this season marked a change with Ami James, Nikko Hurtado, and Ryan Ashley joining as judges, replacing Chris Núñez and Oliver Peck. It was the first season to feature four regular judges. Ten returning artists and four winners from previous seasons competed for $250,000 and the title of Ink Master. The season introduced new twists by Dave Navarro in his role as "Master of Chaos." DJ Tambe won the season, making it his third win. Gian Karle was runner-up, Bob Jones placed third, and Creepy Jason took fourth place. The episode ranked lowest in the season. The final spot was left unclaimed, so the artist who secured it wasn't revealed ^ DJ defeated Angel in the tattoo marathon from the previous episode. Together with Anthony, they formed a jury of peers to decide on the next contestant. They selected DJ as the winner and runner-up. However, he was eliminated during the finale but advanced to it. He also won the Tattoo Marathon and was exempt from elimination. Additionally, he received positive critiques, mixed ones, negative ones, and was among the top contestants. The jury put him in the bottom twice and eliminated him from the competition. The artists on the Ink Masters competition faced four returning judges in week one. They had to create a tattoo with style chosen by each judge against them. Angel Rose won the skill of the week challenge for artistry and was joined in the challenge by Katie McGowan who won the flash challenge but felt unwell. The remaining teams were created by Pon DeMan and Angel, and they competed using cups to make different shades. Pon DeMan won this week's elimination tattoo but was eliminated after two weeks of struggling with the competition. Steve Tefft also struggled in his challenge and was eliminated. In the next episode, Katie still wasn't feeling well and couldn't participate in the flash challenge, which was contrast. The artists had to work in teams using gunpowder to create high contrast pieces on canvases. Pon DeMan won this week's elimination tattoo but was eliminated. Gian Karle also struggled and was eliminated after winning a previous challenge. The final episode of the season saw Katie struggling with her elimination tattoo and being eliminated. The remaining artists competed in the composition flash challenge, using layers to create dynamic art. In the end, Angel Rose won the skill of the week challenge for composition and created a piece of art that made her win this round. Gian Karle also won an elimination tattoo but was eliminated after winning a previous challenge. The final episode ended with DJ Tambe being assigned teams for the last flash challenge of the season. The artists competed in precision, creating sculptures using steel, and won this challenge. In the end, Team DJ (DJ Tambe, Tony Medellin, Bob Jones, and Anthony Michaels) took home the win. color realism gets taken to the next level with colored portraits in tattoos. For the first time this season, there's a big twist - all artists have to vote on who'll be in the bottom together. Gian takes heat from the Masters, and he ends up at the bottom. Best Tattoo of the Day goes to DJ Tambe, while Creepy Jason, Gian Karle, and Tony Medellin get eliminated. Tony Medellin leaves with a finale part 1 on October 26, 2022. The remaining six artists have to secure their spot in the Top 4 by doing two tough challenges. First, they have to do a 12-hour tattoo session on someone's leg without seeing each other's work. Bob gets the first spot in the final four for his great tattoo. Anthony's art is praised but he ends up getting eliminated. Creepy Jason wins the Tattoo Marathon and gets the second spot, while Gian gets the third. The episode ends with a cliffhanger. In finale part 2 on November 2, 2022, DJ Tambe finally secures the last spot in the Top 4. Angel Rose and DJ Tambe are at the bottom, but DJ manages to get a spot in the top three due to his creative tattoo. The judges then eliminate Creepy Jason because his tattoo lacks a main focal point, and Bob gets eliminated for readability issues. The jury of peers has to vote again, this time between DJ and Gian's tattoos. In the end, DJ is declared the winner of the season, making it his third win. The show ends with a No More Ink web series where the contestants talk about their experiences on the show. Each episode is posted a day after the new episode premieres. Season 14 of 'Ink Master' Returns with New Host and Judges The new host Joel Madden will be joined by Japanese specialist Ami James, color theory master Nikko Hurtado, and season 8 champ Ryan Ashley to form the judging crew. Ink Master Season 14 features a diverse lineup of 10 returning artists who have yet to claim the series' top prize. Notable among them are Gian Karle, Katie McGowan, and Bob Jones, who have consistently pushed themselves despite narrowly missing victory in previous seasons. These individuals have forged strong bonds with their fellow competitors, with Gian considering Katie his most formidable rival. The return of Team West members Angel Rose and Hiram Casas provides a fresh dynamic to the competition, while also allowing them to capitalize on past experiences that led to final placements. The upcoming season's lineup is further enriched by Holli Marie, Pon DeMan, Creepy Jason, Chris Shockley, and Deanna James, each bringing their unique strengths and weaknesses to the table.