She quits her career as a doctor and sacrifices her life to take care of her family. After getting married, Bahar takes care of her father-in-law and later, she takes care of her children. Bahar is married to Timur (Mehmet Yilmaz Ak) who is a surgeon at a university hospital. Bahar and Timur go to the same medical school. After they get married, Bahar quits her career and takes care of everything in the house whereas Timur focuses on his career and becomes a successful medical doctor just like his father. Even though Bahar tries her best to please her family, she often fails to get recognition. She gives up her career as a doctor during her medical resident years after getting married to Timur and becomes a full-time housewife for 20 years. She gives up her cheerfulness and even limits her laugh so as not to disturb her husband. Bahar loves what she does for her family, but unfortunately, she cannot get love and importance from the other side. She always supports her husband and her children but she suffers from humiliation, disrespect, and contempt. Bahar is forced to face the true faces of her husband Timur and mother-in-law Nevra (Hatice Aslan) along with her sudden health problem. All of a sudden, she learns that she has a big problem with her liver. She urgently needs surgery and a liver transplant. With Bahar's illness, Doctor Evren (Bugra Gulsoy) enters her life. Evren is a young and successful surgeon. He is an independent and free-spirited young guy who lives on his yacht and does not want to be tied down somewhere. Evren has been raised by his adopted parents. Evren knows Timur's family from his childhood and for this reason, he does not have good feelings about him. Evren supports Bahar on every occasion and tries to save her life. After seeing the selfishness of Timur, he would like to support Bahar more. Bahar needs to have a liver transplant immediately. Out of pure coincidence, her husband turns out to be compatible for a liver transplant. However, Timur does not want to have this surgery for the sake of her wife. Even though he knows that his wife will die, Timur decides not to do anything. Bahar and her children are devastated by Timur's approach. Out of pure coincidence, the hospital finds another donor for Bahar. Bahar eventually survives this unexpected crisis and decides to live for herself. After twenty years, she decides to return to her medical career. Bahar starts to work at the same hospital together with her husband Timur, her son Aziz Uras, her friend Evren, and Timur's first love Rengin. Airing every Tuesday night, the show's ratings success has been quite strong so far, often ranking in the top 5 on Tuesday's rating list. Bahar (Demet Evgar) will face a different side of her seemingly 'flawless' family, especially her husband Timur (Mehmet Yılmaz Ak), when she comes face to face with death. Bahar's sudden illness will change all the dynamics within the family. During this process, Evren (Buğra Gülsoy) will become Timur's rival in every sense. Bahar rebuilding her life will often inspire hope in the audience with tragicomic stories. Bahar, a young woman who has dedicated her life to her husband and two children, initially pursued a career in medicine with big dreams but became a housewife at a turning point in her life. Bahar, whose every day is the same, will become the protagonist of a completely different story and will be reborn with a challenging test that life will bring to her! While returning to her profession, she will encounter both tough struggles and big secrets about her life. A successful professor specialized in general surgery. His paths crossing with Bahar will lead to a new period in both of their lives. Timur is a successful and arrogant professor who attaches great importance to his image. He married Bahar twenty years ago, and they have two children. His relationship with Bahar and his children is distant and cold. His mother, whom he never goes against, is the most valuable person to him. Wanting everything to be under control, Timur will lose this control with the breaking point Bahar will experience. He will enter into an ongoing confrontation with both his family and Bahar. While trying to cope with all these dynamics, he will fight a great deal to keep his secrets from being revealed. Rengin, in her forties, is a gynecology professor. Born into a wealthy family, she has achieved everything she wanted and has become one of Turkey's leading doctors. Always an absolute winner, Rengin will be faced with the possibility of defeat for the first time with Bahar's rebirth. Bahar's change will push Rengin into a tougher struggle for her own dreams and will reopen the account from the past with Bahar! Nevra, in her mid-sixties, is an authoritarian, image-conscious, high-standard, strong, and arrogant woman. The only person she values in life is her son Timur. Nevra's order, maintained for 20 years thanks to Bahar doing everything for them, will be shaken by Bahar's change. While doing everything to make Bahar return to being a housewife, she will also struggle with her own past and secrets. Elit Andaç Çam, aged 35, was born on August 8, 1988, in Malatya. Bahar dedicates her life to her spouse and children, Timur Yavuzoğlu, her accomplished surgeon husband. Bahar's illness shocks the Yavuzoğlu family, who appear to be very happy on the outside. Evren, Bahar's physician, is committed to saving her life and believes a liver transplant is the only way to do it. The only family member whose liver is suitable is Timur!Nothing will be the same going forward for the Yavuzoğlu family, who were put to the test with an extremely high threshold!Upon confronting mortality, Bahar will discover a different side of her relatives, especially her outwardly "ideal" husband, Timur. Timur is shocked to learn that Bahar has been admitted to the hospital. At present, Timur, Aziz, and Bahar are all in the same hospital. They choose to keep their familial connections secret despite working here as a team. Timur and Rengin begin plans for Bahar to be sent away. Once more, Evren will be the one to support and assist Bahar the most while she is in the hospital.Bahar makes an effort to adjust to her dual duties as a mother at home and an assistant doctor at the hospital. Nevra continues to hold Bahar accountable for this, accusing her of being a bad mother. The tension in the family grows because Bahar's first day of work at the hospital comes on Umay's birthday. When everything terrible occurs to Umay, Bahar will start to second-guess her decision. On the other hand, the unexpected illness of Bahar will impact every aspect of the family's dynamics. Evren will be Timur's opponent throughout this process in every way. Through tragicomic story-telling, Bahar's reconstruction of her life will inspire hope in the audience.
