Join us on an unforgettable journey with concerts, excursions, fashion shows, and unparalleled entertainment options. A star-studded lineup of celebrities will be in attendance, making every moment a surprise. This cruise promises bigger and better than ever, so save the dates for October 19-26, 2025, aboard the Carnival Liberty. As a bonus, you'll be helping kids stay in Historically Black Colleges and Universities. The TJMS crew invites you to join us for an incredible 8 days and nights of partying with purpose. With hundreds of celebrities and over 2,000 new friends, this is an event not to be missed. Frequently Asked Questions Cabin Purchase Benefits: Your cabin purchase benefits the Tom Joyner Foundation. * Dining Arrangements: Dining on the cruise is open seating; there are no assigned times. The color of your pass card indicates which performance you will attend when an entertainer performs more than once aboard. Travel Insurance: We strongly recommend travel insurance, and it's available from Travel Guard. Non-Alcoholic Beverages: Guests may bring up to 12 non-alcoholic beverages as carry-on items on boarding day. The Royal Caribbean Policy has specific guidelines. The cruise ship has already made arrangements for gratuities the day before sailing. Royal Caribbean clarifies that they don't customize electronic documents for charters, so guests will find generic information when pulling e-docs generated with their booking. The gratuities are prepaid right before the charter starts and can't be stopped for just one sailing. Passengers should disregard any gratuity info found in their e-docs. The cruise price includes accommodations, entertainment, meals (excluding specialty restaurants), beverages (except soda and alcohol), gratuities, government taxes, fees, port charges, shuttle service between airports and piers. Port charges cover various costs such as pilotage, taxes, and other expenses associated with entering or leaving ports. Travelers should fly into the Miami International Airport (MIA) or Fort Lauderdale Airport (FLL) for convenient complimentary shuttles on embarkation and debarkation days. Airline tickets are not included in the cruise price and must be purchased separately. As of August 31, 2024, passengers will need to review Royal Caribbean's travel document requirements. For those traveling with a birth certificate instead of a passport, it's essential to have an original or government-issued copy. U.S. citizens aged 16 and older on closed-loop sailings may use their birth certificate, naturalization paper, or consular report as proof of citizenship but will still need a state-issued photo ID if not traveling with a passport book. Instead of losing your vacation investment, consider protecting it with a reputable travel insurance provider like Travel Guard (1-800-826-4919, reference number 98362). You can also search for "travel insurance" online. We receive a small commission from their sales. Keep in mind that many insurers require coverage to be purchased near the booking date. It's essential to buy insurance from a carrier specializing in travel insurance to get the best benefits. For payments, we accept credit cards (MasterCard, VISA, American Express, Discover), personal checks, cashier's checks, or money orders. Additionally, Uplift financing is available for qualified purchases. If you need to cancel your trip, be aware that our deposit policy is non-refundable ($500 per person). However, the remaining balance can be refunded at declining rates closer to the sailing date. To cancel, please submit your request in writing. We follow a strict Transfer, Cancellation, and Refund Policy, which applies regardless of circumstances or factors beyond your control. Regarding tax deductions, consult with your tax advisor regarding charitable contributions, as part of your cabin purchase supports The Tom Joyner Foundation. For travel details: dates (April 27 - May 4, 2024), ports (Miami to Labadee, Haiti, Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic, and San Juan, Puerto Rico), and the ship (Royal Caribbean's Independence of the Seas). If you're interested in hosting an activity or seminar on the cruise, please note that we are not currently accepting submissions. For drink specials, be aware that the Cruise Line offers daily promotions to its passengers. Please note that itineraries, dates, times, and all other details are subject to change without notice.
