House party rachael guide

Welcome to this House Party Rachael walkthrough guide, which offers a comprehensive step-by-step guide to completing Rachael's story. This article complements other walkthroughs for various characters in the game. For more resources and tips, readers can check out additional guides or utilize cheats and console commands. To begin with Rachael's storyline, players need to collect specific items: Painkillers (Master Bathroom), a Cup of Coffee (Living Room > Frank's Chair), Madison's Phone (Master Bathroom > Left of the Faucet), Paper (Study Room > Laptop), Pencil (Skybed Room > Desk), and 6 Bottles of Booze scattered throughout various rooms. The walkthrough is divided into steps, starting with Rachael's interactions at the party. Players must: 1. Engage in conversations with Rachael, Frank, Madison, and others. 2. Offer to help Rachael by providing painkillers and discussing her nervousness. 3. Acquire the Thermos from the cabinet and give it to Rachael for her safety. 4. Interact with Ashley, giving her Madison's Diary and helping her gain access to Vickie's phone number. 5. Help Patrick by giving him painkillers and asking him to return his phone. For the final step, players need to beat Patrick in a fight to obtain his bottle of wine. They can do this either during a confrontation with Rachael or when Frank is fighting Patrick. To progress through the game, first ask Katherine to send a fake message from Vickie's number to Rachael's, with the content being "tell the cutest guy at the party that you had a wet dream about him". Then wait for Rachel and proceed with Katherine. Dare Rachel to wear a bikini top and when she complies, go with Katherine again. Next, reset the router by turning it off and on, located on the top shelf of the closet in the study room. Find Katherine and dare Rachel to flash the cutest guy. Follow Rachel and inquire how her friend got to know her. Go to the study room and dare Rachel to remove her panties, then to get completely naked for 30 seconds for the cutest guy. After that, find a private spot. Eventually, dare Rachel to engage intimately with the cutest guy at the party, leading her to the master bedroom, locking the door, and enjoying the outcome. House Party is an open-ended social simulator where every decision alters the story, featuring various characters and interactions that can lead to diverse outcomes. This walkthrough aims to guide interactions with characters like Madison, Ashley, Katherine, Rachel, Vickie, Stephanie, Brittney, Amy, Frank, and Harem for desired results. For a comprehensive romance guide or to try cheats, additional resources are available. The walkthrough is structured around character interactions and their consequences. Starting with Madison, introduce yourself to Frank to unlock conversations with her, choosing "I think I'd like to get to know you a little better" and discussing the bathroom and Frank's interest. This boosts your friendship with Madison. Introduce yourself to Ashley, commenting on her relation to Madison and noticing Frank's interest. Collect items like the mysterious key by the fireplace, the bathroom key in the garage, and Madison's phone in the master bedroom's bathroom. Use these items to progress through the game, such as finding the yellow pencil upstairs and using it with a piece of paper found near Brittney's laptop to unlock Madison's safe. Ensure you're alone when accessing the safe and return Madison's diary from the closet. Discussing Brittney with Madison and returning her phone can lead to rewards if done correctly and in private, setting up a prank on Ashley. Helping Ashley and navigating these interactions carefully is crucial for advancing through the game's storylines. After drying off, compliment Ashley on being cute. Head downstairs to grab a towel and give it to her. Offer to help wash her clothes, but only after gaining her trust by giving her Madison's diary. Once she agrees, follow her to the room with the bunk bed and collect the wet clothes. Ask if she wants something else, and since Ashley wants a soda, go down to grab one from the fridge. Before heading back upstairs, visit the master bedroom to grab a while bottle of eye drops from the bottom shelf. Next, head downstairs, grab the skeleton key from the bathroom, and use it to lock both the bathroom downstairs and the Master Bedroom bathroom. Then, give Ashley the soda, which will make her start feeling sick. Without clothes, she'll run downstairs and expose herself in front of everyone. Talk to Madison and collect your reward. Alternatively, you can choose to trigger a Madison Blackmail side objective by giving Madison's phone to Ashley when Madison is not around. Choose an option suggesting it might be her phone, and she'll agree to prank Madison. Give Madison's diary to Ashley, and you'll receive the phone passcode. To unlock the reward, open your inventory, view what's inside Madison's phone, click on images, and store the pictures using the email icon. Return to Madison and give her the phone. Discuss the pictures with her to trigger the Blackmail path. If you choose not to follow the Blackmail path, you can go with Ashley and unlock sweet rewards. After Step 14 in the Madison Guide, Ashley has trusted you with her clothes. Take the clothes and head to the laundry room opposite the upstairs. Wash the clothes before they complete, then grab a soda from the fridge. Give the soda to Ashley, return to the washing machine, put the wet clothes in the dryer, wait for it to finish, and then return the clothes to Ashley. Talk to her, but she won't agree to reward you. In the Katherine Walkthrough, introduce yourself to Stephanie, a girl in a blue dress dancing beside the fireplace. Collect the mysterious key from the top left corner of the fireplace. Introduce yourself to Katherine and choose options indicating you need something out of your intended purpose, you've noticed her looking at her phone, and you're surprised she'd ever be alone. Ask about Stephanie and choose to grab a drink with her. Find Frank and tell him you're not drunk, asking him to guard the alcohol all night. Discuss Katherine with him, then head back to Katherine and ask which drink she likes. Tell her that Frank is guarding the alcohol and fancies her. Return to Frank and discuss Katherine further to strike up a conversation. Go upstairs and find Brittney in the room with a laptop and desk. Look for an SD card near a pen or calculator and use your camera to take a picture from your inventory. Return downstairs and go to the garage through the kitchen. Move Katherine into a quiet room, either by using the Cell Phone Jammer or pushing her away. Ask her to pose without her top on for Frank, telling her he wants the photo. Take the picture and then let her relax. Return to Frank and look to his right where there's a cabinet with alcohol. Find an empty bottle of Vodka and ask Frank about it. Take the bottle but you'll need to give Frank your camera in exchange. Grab some rum from the cabinet and return to Katherine. Give her the drink, which will prompt her to ask you to remove all your clothes and walk around the house. Do this and get reactions from everyone, including Katherine. Talk to her afterwards. However, Katherine isn't ready to be with you yet. Fill up the empty Vodka bottle with water from the sink faucet and grab some salami from the fridge. Give these items to Katherine when she's in the master bedroom. You can then enter and exit the bathroom without any issues. This marks the end of your task, allowing you to claim your reward. You'll see a laptop on one side of the desk with a bottle next to it. Head to the kitchen, pour coffee into an empty cup, and turn off the stove. Give Patrick his requested painkillers, then ask for a favor - you need his phone, which can be found with Brittney. Approach Brittney and introduce yourself to get Patrick's phone back. Tell Patrick about Frank and his wine bottle. Go to Frank and tell him about Patrick; this will cause a fight. When Patrick drops his wine bottle, quickly grab it. Give all your Natty Lite beers to Frank and ask him to sniff the thermos while you secretly sniff it yourself and lie that it has water. Tell Frank the coffee was Irish coffee, which should help Patrick sober up over time. Take the thermos back to Rachel and say, "Tell her you're not scared of Frank - look at these biceps." Make sure Frank isn't nearby before asking Rachel if she's nervous, then follow up with "Trust me" and "That's awesome." You can now ask for her phone number. When Patrick returns, ask him to get his phone from Brittney, take it from him, and then ask Madison about getting Vickie's number. However, this requires prank- Ashley by untying her top without her noticing; once done in front of Madison, she'll give you the number. You can now talk to Katherine about hacking phones and spoofed messages. Give her Patrick's phone and follow her to the room with a laptop, where you should select an option that says send texts to Rachel then from Vickie. The next step is to select messages in the following order: "Tell cute guy about wet dream" and wait for Rachel to come and talk to you. Then select fake text saying, "Take your shirt off," and wait. As soon as the internet goes down, find it on the top shelf of the cupboard in the study room, turn it off and on again, spoof text her again with "Flash the cute guy." Follow Rachel outside when she's done dancing, and after selecting the dialogue option "How her friend knows you," select the option to dance in your bra. After that's done, use fake texts saying, "Get naked for cute guy for 30 secs" and follow Rachel outside. Ask Katherine to send a fake text saying "Get naked and touch yourself," then hide inside the closet until she's done. Finally, ask her to send another fake text saying "Bang the cute guy" and go with Rachel to the Master Bedroom. Lock the door, talk to Rachel, and then speak with Leah to proceed further. Currently, communicate with Frank briefly and let him know there's water inside his thermos. Next, find Rachel and reassure her that she doesn't have to be afraid of Frank, making sure you're not being overheard by him. While talking to Rachel, ask if she's having a good time and try to gain her trust by showing her you're reliable; don't forget to get her phone number. Then, tell Madison everything is fine and compliment her brownies. After that, talk to Ashley and mention that she resembles Madison but is hotter. Give him his mobile phone back, then go to Ashley and repeat the comment about resembling Madison, also giving her a phone number. Talk to Madison again, telling her she can trust you with other plans, and return her diary from the Master Bedroom. Next, get Vickie's phone number, find a secluded spot, and secretly observe Madison's contacts. Give Patrick his pain relievers, then approach Brittney and try to get closer to her; during the conversation, ask about Patrick's phone. If Brittney denies returning the phone, go to Patrick and make him take it back. You can choose either Frank or Madison to confront Patrick, which helps you keep a bottle of wine. Select dialogue options that mention Patrick trying to steal something and warn him to watch out for Frank while asking how he hides the bottle. Use someone's help to grab the wine bottle if Patrick drops it, or pick it up yourself. Go to the kitchen, make coffee using the wine and kettle, then pour the wine into the kettle. Give this wine-coffee to Patrick, which will slowly sober him up. Get close to Patrick and take his phone. Now, talk to Katherine about your need for her and mention your phone hacking skills; invite Vickie to the party and discuss what Rachel said in a private area. Tell Katherine you're ready, then go back to Ashley, compliment her smile, give her a blue flower, and confess your love. Find Leah in the jacuzzi, compliment her chest, and hint that you're ready to undress. Go to a private place and engage in personal activities for satisfaction. Return to the jacuzzi and try with Vickie again; after a brief conversation, you'll receive the reward you've been waiting for. Following these steps will help unlock rewards with each character in House Party Walkthrough.
