At his apartment, she witnesses him screaming and collapsing into a seizure before fatally smashing himself with a barbell plate. Afraid of being caught, Elizabeth leaves without alerting anyone. Now cursed herself, Elizabeth starts experiencing disturbing hallucinations of people smiling at her, causing her mental health to rapidly deteriorate. Seeking help, she reconnects with her estranged friend Gemma. Elizabeth receives a text from an unknown number, claiming to know she was at Lewis's apartment and that she is in danger. At a fundraiser hosted by music executive Darius, Elizabeth hallucinates the teleprompter stalling and goes on an impromptu rant about how success has made her life worse. She sees a smiling Paul approaching from the audience and panics, accidentally injuring the event's elderly host as she runs offstage. Elizabeth meets Morris, the man who texted her, in a bar. He tells her he has been tracking the Entity ever since it killed his brother. He explains that the curse passes to anyone who witnesses a victim's death. Theorizing that the Entity is parasitic and could die without a host, he suggests stopping Elizabeth's heart and then resuscitating her to break the curse, but she refuses. Following a mental breakdown in her apartment, Elizabeth is cornered by the Entity, which takes the form of her backup dancers. Skye tries to escape but is violently thrown around the apartment and pinned down as the Entity forces its way into her throat, causing her to black out. A flashback reveals that Skye caused Paul's death by intentionally crashing the car during a drug-induced argument. Later, Elizabeth awakens at a retreat and argues with Skye over the upcoming tour. Suddenly, Elizabeth smiles, smashes a mirror, and fatally stabs herself with a shard. Skye attempts to leave but realizes it was she who stabbed Elizabeth. Skye escapes the retreat and reunites with Gemma, stealing a car to meet Morris. She receives a call from the real Gemma and realizes that "Gemma" is actually the Entity. After regaining control of the car, Skye meets Morris at an abandoned Pizza Hut, where he plans to use the walk-in freezer to prevent brain damage when stopping her heart. Morris temporarily leaves and the Entity appears as Skye's former self from the car wreck. After a struggle, she fights it off and injects herself with the syringe meant to stop her heart. Unfazed, the Entity mockingly affirms that Skye is not in control. Skye then finds herself on stage for a performance at Herald Square Garden. She sees Joshua, Darius, and an alive Elizabeth watching from the audience, and realizes that the entire day has been an illusion. The Entity appears as Skye's current self before tearing its stomach open to reveal its true form: a giant, bloody, skinless bipedal creature with multiple smiling mouths nested within one another.Naomi Scott stars as pop star Skye Riley in the sequel to the horror hit Smile.
