Click to verify

Cast & crewUser reviewsTriviaFAQDiscover nominees and winners, red carpet looks, and more from the Emmys!Sign in to rate and Watchlist for personalized recommendationsSign inSuggest an edit or add missing contentYou have no recently viewed pages View source The first official vocal appearance of Alvin and the Chipmunks was their three-time Grammy award-winning single "The Chipmunk Song (Christmas Don't Be Late)" in 1958. Driven by the success of this hit, Ross Bagdasarian, Sr. created The Alvin Show, The Chipmunks' first television series, in 1961 and the group's first solo album, The Alvin Show. After his death in 1972, his son, Ross Bagdasarian, Jr., relit the franchise in 1980 with the album Chipmunk Punk. Seeing an opportunity to continue his father's legacy, Ross Bagdasarian, Jr. and his wife, Janice Karman, launched the 80s Chipmunks with the TV series Alvin and the Chipmunks, The Chipmunks, and The Chipmunks Go to the Movies, lasting eight seasons total. They would also create The Chipettes in 1983 and release the first animated feature film, The Chipmunk Adventure, in 1987. In 2007, the franchise entered into a second revival which began with the release of the group's third platinum album, Alvin and the Chipmunks: Original Motion Picture Soundtrack, and the start of the CG Chipmunks. The CGI/live-action films Alvin and the Chipmunks, The Squeakquel, and Chipwrecked together opened the door for the creation of a new TV series, ALVINNN!!! and The Chipmunks, and a fourth CGI/live-action film, The Road Chip, in 2015. Four years later, the Bagdasarian family accepted a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, celebrating Alvin and the Chipmunks' 60th anniversary. Only March 14 2026 00:00:00 EDT until the 7th anniversary of Alvin and the Chipmunks Day. This message will be displayed if the timer does not show up (like if the clock is loading or you do not have javascript enabled on your browser). Only Decemeber 22 2025 00:00:00 EDT until the 67th anniversary of "The Chipmunk Song" becoming a Billboard #1 single. This message will be displayed if the timer does not show up (like if the clock is loading or you do not have javascript enabled on your browser). September 17 1983: The Alvin and the Chipmunks series premiered on NBC.1983: The C-Team and The Chipettes premiered on TV.1983: The Chipettes make their debut television appearance.1988: Elementary, My Dear Simon premiered on TV. The Alvin Show is the original 1961 Alvin and the Chipmunks television series, created by Ross Bagdasarian, Sr., initially airing in prime time on CBS lasting only a single season. The show was created in a Three Short formatting: two dedicated to The Chipmunks and one to an inventor, Clyde Crashcup, and his assistant, Leonardo with bumpers or featured commercials between. Though drawn in color and televised in back and white, it wasn't until The Alvin Show was reran did the episodes air in color. The last airing ended in 1995 and, though the full season has yet to be released on DVD, three episodes are included on the 2015 The Alvin Show DVD. Operation Theodore - The Chipmunks Channel - Full Episode A chipmunk dared Ross Bagdasarian to drive past him Al, Alvie, Speedy Seville, Alvin the Obvious, Alvster Prideful, energetic, enterprising, gutsy, gregarious, vain, boisterous, impulsive, daring, heroic, comedic, snarky, reckless, stubborn, caring, selfish, hyperactive, brave, charming, cool, sporty, lazy, imaginative, athletic, mischievous, rebellious, fun-loving Red baseball cap, red hoodie or shirt with a yellow 'A', brown or auburn hair and fur, black, blue, or brown/orange eyes Singer, Rapper, Dancer, Rock Star His friends and family, dancing, music, singing, hula hoops, skateboarding, gaming, sports, adventures, competition, pranks, girls, attention, fun, acceptance, being heard, being in charge, the color red, the color gold, thrills, company, his cap, getting into Simon's lab His friends and family in danger, people getting upset with him, being lonely, being told what to do, losing his cap, school, homework, chores, yoga, tomatoes, spiders, being shut down, bullies, getting grounded Alvin Seville is one of The Chipmunks and the overall main protagonist of the series and movies. He is the ringleader of the iconic trio. Alvin greatly relishes his role as band front man, and his impulsive behavior regularly gets him and his brothers (sometimes even Dave) into trouble. Despite all his faults, he is very kind, caring, friendly, sweet, good-hearted, loving and nice, and he has got a very big, gold heart. Personality '60s Series Alvin, the shortest and possibly youngest of the Chipmunk brothers, is always scheming, whether it be because he wants to get out of chores (Overworked Alvin) or is just trying to find a place to relax (Alvin's Cruise). Alvin has much musical talent through singing and playing of his harmonica. He loves his harmonica and will play it any time he can, even if it ends up messing up the song ("Alvin's Harmonica"). Alvin has trouble grasping other languages or their cultures but enjoys traveling the world anyway ("I Wish I Could Speak French", "Comin' Thru' the Rye"). Alvin's interest in female characters isn't as strong as in later incarnations, but he definitely is a charmer ("August Dear"). He has a big dislike for work, but he can be very imaginative at times (Sir Alvin). He will manipulate people when his fame is at stake (Disc Jockey). At times, the selfish side of Alvin can take over, but, in the end, he always returns to help his brothers and Dave (Alvin's Alter-Ego). He doesn't take lightly to people insulting him and his brothers' music (Squares), and sometimes even resorts to violence when dealing with people he dislikes (Daisy Belle in "Three Blind Mice"). '80s Series Alvin is the oldest of The Chipmunks in this incarnation, as revealed with the statement, "I've never been alone, except those five minutes before Simon was born" (Grounded Chipmunk). Alvin is headstrong, charming, and musically talented. He can play the guitar, piano, and harmonica, as well as other instruments, not including his singing ability. He always seems to make up crazy plans to accomplish any challenge that comes his way, whether it is trying to help his brothers, preventing Dave from figuring something out, or getting out of a sticky situation. He is always on an emotional roller coaster ride and can have mood swings. Additionally he can be hesitant at first in some situations, but once he understands the circumstances, things are fine for him. For example, Alvin has a hard time forgiving his mother for leaving them until he understands the situation (A Chipmunk Reunion). Alvin is commonly portrayed as the charming one of the three. He dresses stylishly and attempts to attract a group of visiting girls before being usurped by Simon, who drank a special kind of potion which granted him natural magnetism and charm (Dr. Simon and Mr. Heartthrob). Alvin can be impulsive which people, especially Dave, find bothersome. At times, Alvin's determination can be viewed as nuts. As a result of his constant habit of reacting to opportunity, Alvin has gotten his brothers and himself in trouble at times such as the balloon race around the world (The Chipmunk Adventure) and a large number of episodes. Despite all of this, Alvin's intentions are good, as well as crazy and chaotic. He can be friendly at times. For instance, he gave his golden harmonica, one of his most prized possessions, to a child with a terminal illness (A Chipmunk Christmas). Alvin also helps Theodore temporarily get a bully off his case, making the principal remark, "I'll say this for Alvin: He sticks up for his little brother" (Alvin and the Chipmunks Meet the Wolfman). CGI Films Alvin retains some of the traits he possessed from the 80s, such as his desire for fun, and charm as seen in Alvin and the Chipmunks: The Squeakquel where he manages to capture the attention of a group of girls using his cute looks and as well as the French language (he calls Becca Mademoiselle after kissing her finger). Nevertheless, he has difficulty at showing affection toward Dave such as in the first film, Alvin and the Chipmunks, where he struggles at telling Dave that he loves him as a father, but less so with his brothers such as the time Alvin tried to kiss Simon to cheer him up in the second film. In the third film, when all of the Chipmunks are stranded on the island, Alvin slowly becomes the mature one, as seen when he yells at Simon (who had a change in personality due to getting bitten by a spider), only for Brittany to tell him he's starting to sound like Dave - much to his horror ("NOOOOOOOOOO!") and builds the boys' treehouse by himself. CGI Series Alvin is the middle child in this incarnation, which he indirectly reveals about himself (The Sub), and is later confirmed by Dave (Big Bro Theodore). He is similar to his 1983 incarnation with some differences. He has a big hatred of school (though he can do well if there's something to look forward to) but is a skilled gamer. Additionally he has gotten into this habit of giving attitude, sulking, even whining when feeling upset or to get his way. In addition he can be prone to outbursts. He tends to stutter, saying "You know" a lot. He continues to flirt with women such as Principal Meadows (Principal Interest) or have crushes and/or idolizations on famous individuals (Mister Manners). He sometimes uses others, such as his brother Theodore, to do his dirty work. Alvin more frequently faces mishaps in the series, even in situations where it isn't his fault. Despite his tough exterior, he can sometimes be very anxious with change or when he doesn't understand a situation. It's revealed Alvin has arachnophobia, a paralyzing fear of spiders (Of Mice and Munks). He also can be nerdy at times. In one episode, he is seen mathematically explaining how he does his hair (Tables Turned), while in another he dances joyfully through physics equations (The Crow That Ate My Homework). Though he acts out, he is very remorseful and does what it takes to make up (To Serve And Protect). He's still protective of his brothers (Bully For You, Bathroom Bully) and has familiar emotional attachment at times (Warbie). Alvin retains his sporty lifestyle, frequently seen on his skateboard (What A Gem), though he tends to go too far when others are concerned (Mutiny). He is also shown to be kind on numerous occasions, as he tries to give Dave a much needed rest in the form of a Hawaii vacation (House Guests), to get toothpicks to recreate the toothpick airplane Dave made as a kid (Let's Make a Deal), and save a toy store (Unboxing Day). He is also sometimes shown as a hero by saving Cheesy and the King and Queen (Castle Catastrophe) and when he saves Theodore from falling (Warren Seville). It's true that he's selfish and lazy at times, but in some scenes it's clear that he has a very big heart. Good qualities While he is mischievous, perhaps that is what makes him so delightful and lovable. He has quite the imagination. Like his brothers, he is also very talented. He is quite funny and has a good sense of humor. Unlike Brittany, he is usually calm and only very rarely loses his temper. While he sometimes does wrong, he always realizes that he was wrong and in the end corrects all his mistakes. Deep down, he loves his brothers very much and would do anything for them. Deep down, Alvin has insecurities. In the episode "Alvin in Analysis", he reveals that he loves fame is because he's fears that he'll be responsible for his family's fall from fame. This proves that Alvin's heart is much bigger than it seems, and deep down he is not at all selfish, in fact, he is very kind-hearted. Although he often drives the others and Dave crazy, he never means any harm. Bad qualities While he is kind, he can be selfish, stubborn, and a bit of a jerk at times. The scenes where Alvin flirts with every girl in his school can be cringe-worthy, considering the fact that he's a chipmunk and they're human girls and that's zoophilia! Moreover, the episode of CGI-series Principal Interest, he literally fell in love with the adult and married (!) principal. He is sometimes very lazy and can hate housework, which he usually leaves to Theodore. And while he loves Theodore very much, he sometimes takes advantage of him and deceives him. While he is good-hearted, he can be quite immature for his age. Appearance Alvin's signature appearance has changed over the years. Before The Alvin Show, Alvin looked like a normal chipmunk somewhat similar to his CGI films appearance. Alvin wears just a red shirt with the letter 'A'. After The Alvin Show was created, Alvin was given more human features. He wears a red shirt with his signature yellow 'A' that goes down to his ankles and has black and white shoes. Alvin was also given a red baseball cap and is the shortest of his brothers. In Chipmunk Punk, Alvin wears clothes similar to The Alvin Show with the red sweater and matching hat. He also wears white and dark grey shoes and has a box cut instead of his regular hair as to match the visual style of the cover. When the Alvin and the Chipmunks series was created, Alvin wears a red sweater with his signature yellow 'A' and a baseball cap. He also wore white and blue pattern sneakers. In the early episodes, Alvin's eye color was black but, as the series progressed, his eye color changed to blue. In some episodes, Alvin wears a red t-shirt with a yellow 'A' on it along with red pajama pants. while in others, he wears light red footie pajamas with an 'A' on it. In Guardian Chipmunks he wears yellow footies. In the CGI/live-action films, Alvin only wears a red hoodie with a yellow 'A' on it. His appearance was modified to look closer to a real life chipmunk. He has brown fur as well as brown eyes. In the 2007 Alvin and the Chipmunks, Alvin is only seen wearing his signature cap twice; the first time on a magazine cover and the second at the end of the movie. He has been shown to dress more formally on certain occasions, however: in The Squeakquel, when performing You Really Got Me with Honor Society, he wears a black sport coat and a red tie, and during the Music Mania competition near the end of the film, he wears a black sport coat over a red t-shirt with a design that looks like if a Peace Symbol and a letter "A" got mashed together made out of gold leaf. In Chipwrecked, he wears a white tuxedo with a rose in the breast pocket when going to the casino on the ship, and during the Chipmunks and Chipettes' performance at the International Music Awards near the end of the film, he wears a red sport coat with a black tie. In ALVINNN!!! and The Chipmunks, Alvin wears a red and blue-hooded sweater with his signature yellow "A" on it, which has a hole in the left sleeve, blue jeans, and red/orange/white converse sneakers with white laces. Alvin regains his signature red cap as a common accessory, but it now has green beneath the visor and red-orange on the top-visor. He has auburn hair and blue eyes. His pajamas consist of a red t-shirt with a winged guitar illustration and red and white striped pajama pants. Relationships Dave Dave and Alvin are very much alike in their personalities (strong minded) as they clash with one another. Frequently, Alvin will push every button Dave has. No matter what Dave says, Alvin will do the opposite which makes Dave scream his signature catchphrase "ALLLVIIINNN!!!!", to which Alvin replies with a loud "OKAY!!" Despite all of this, Alvin and Dave love each other deeply. Simon In The Alvin Show, Alvin and Simon didn't usually argue or have a developing relationship until the 1980's series. Generally, Alvin and Simon have a love/hate relationship. They get frustrated with one another, mainly because of their differences, but one thing they have in common; stubbornness. As a result they would resort into shouting matches or get physical with each other. Although Simon disagrees about Alvin’s plans, Alvin does manage to talk him into it. Despite all of this, they do love each other and work things out as they are very close. They even will team up to help out, such as finding a cure for their brother in Alvin and the Chipmunks Meet the Wolfman. When an enemy or a bully tries to harm Simon, Alvin will stick up for him. Theodore Like Simon, Alvin is very protective of Theodore as shown in Alvin and the Chipmunks Meet the Wolfman where he saved Theodore from Nathan, the school bully for example. However the relationship between Alvin and Theodore is not always plain sailing despite them closer than at first glance. Alvin usually enjoys teasing and sometimes pushing Theodore around which upsets Theodore, which Alvin doesn’t always realize. He also drags Theodore into his schemes. Despite all of this, Alvin can have a soft spot especially when Theodore is scared or upset. Brittany Alvin and Brittany constantly butt heads because they're both very stubborn and sassy. Deep down they love each other and would protect each other or they team up to save their other siblings. They are shown in the future as married with twin boys. Jeanette Alvin and Jeanette are friends. My Sister The Weirdo, is one example in which Jeanette trusts in Alvin's abilities, such as his confidence, to help herself out. When Alvin acts out, Jeanette will be firm with him (similar to how she is with Brittany sometimes). She also helps Alvin out with her wise words. Eleanor Alvin and Eleanor are the most athletic out of the six. They can clash but it's not as bad as Alvin's clashing with Simon and Brittany. Whenever Alvin needs help or vice versa, they have each other's support and help each other in the game. They also can team up on other occasions especially when it comes to dealing with Brittany such as Skater Girl and Sick as a Chipmunk. Quotes Alvin: Please, Dave! I need a little culture in my life! The Eiffel Tower, the Sistine Chapel, the Louvre in Rome! - (The Chipmunk Adventure) Alvin: You're lucky this is only a game! You'd never beat me if this were for real! - (The Chipmunk Adventure) Alvin: $100,000? This is fantastic! - (The Chipmunk Adventure) Alvin: We edit the tape together, play it for Miss Miller, and we're on our way around the world! - (The Chipmunk Adventure) Alvin: I love Athens, the nightlife, the girls, the excitement! - (The Chipmunk Adventure) Alvin: It's been a piece of cake. The only problem we have is crowd control. We're the hottest act in rock and roll. But you don't have that problem, do you? - (The Chipmunk Adventure) Alvin: Relax, Theodore. This isn't the arcade game. - (The Chipmunk Adventure) Alvin: 3:00 in the morning and Prince Theodore has a craving for mushrooms! I hope he chokes on 'em! - (The Chipmunk Adventure) Alvin: OK, OK. We'll give you half. - (The Chipmunk Adventure) Alvin: Don't. Touch. The cap. - (Meet Frankenstein) Alvin: We missed our show, the park is closed, we're probably locked in, and it's all my fault! - (Meet Frankenstein) Alvin: Are you in, or...in? - (Meet the Wolfman) Alvin: That's it! I can't take this anymore. I can't! I give up! I'm sick of struggling for survival, competing with gophers and earthworms and that loser sparrow who always takes my nuts! And I'm especially sick of this stupid! Stupid! TREE!! - (Alvin and the Chipmunks) Alvin: Dave likes to wear, dirty underwear, with little hairs! - (Alvin and the Chipmunks) Alvin: Our parents were hippies. They left early to join a commune. - (Alvin and the Chipmunks) Alvin: We're not performing monkeys, Dave! Why do we have to sing for that guy anyway? - (Alvin and the Chipmunks) Alvin: That hurts, Dave. That really hurts. - (Alvin and the Chipmunks) Alvin: You should have kissed her, Dave! She wanted you! - (Alvin and the Chipmunks) Alvin: MAJOR ROCK STARS. - (Alvin and the Chipmunks) Alvin: You'll never take us alive!!! - (Alvin and the Chipmunks) Alvin: You talking to me? You talking to me? I'm the only one here, so... you must be talking to me! - (The Squeakquel) Alvin: Oh, relax. It's like Ryan says; "who's going to beat singing chipmunks?" - (The Squeakquel) Alvin: Got it. Straight to the top. Ironic. - (The Squeakquel) Alvin: (imitating Hannibal Lecter) I'm gonna crack you like an acorn and eat you for dinner with some fava beans and a nice chianti! - (The Squeakquel) Alvin: I will create a spark by striking this rock with my Swiss army knife...which Dave took from me. - (Chipwrecked) Alvin: I'll make sure to save you the pit! (chuckles, then smashes into a tree) Oh, my acorns! - (Chipwrecked) Alvin: Okay, this is crazy. Building a shelter was your idea! Yours!!! - (Chipwrecked) Alvin: Remember I said someday I may need to disobey you? Sorry, Dave, but I gotta disobey you. - (Chipwrecked) Alvin: Hey, guys! Look what I won! (pulls out a plush toy replica of himself) Isn't he cute? Look at that face! - (The Road Chip) Alvin: I didn't listen to Theodore's song because I thought the only rapper he cared about was a candy wrapper. - (Lil' T) Alvin: Ah, I see your problem. It's obvious. This has been written by aliens. - (Un-Send!) Alvin: I can't let you get hurt, Jeanette. My reputation isn't worth it. - (Wacky Wednesday) Alvin: Well, 'pretty' probably falls under Brittany. - (Secret Admirer) Trivia The origin of his name comes from Alvin Bennett.[1] Over the years, he had crushes (or interests) on many human female characters. Some examples include Miss Fancy from the 60s episode Fancy, Sandy the Babysitter and his math teacher Miss Stone from the 80s series episode Romancing Miss Stone, Dena from Funny, We Shrunk the Adults, Becca in The Squeakquel, and Principal Meadows from the ALVINNN!!! series. Alvin's age is unknown in the CGI/live-action films, though the 2007 movie novel states that Simon is the oldest. In international dubs of the CGI films, Simon is also referred to, as the oldest. [citation needed] In the CGI/live-action films, Alvin has only worn his baseball cap in the 2007 movie (in a magazine and at the end). In the CGI/live-action films, Alvin is also depicted as having the ability to speak basic French, unlike in both the 1980's animated series and The Alvin Show, in which he is shown to be unable to speak French in "Petit Papa Noel" from A Very Merry Chipmunk, and he is shown to wish he could speak French in The Alvin Show musical segment "I Wish I Could Speak French." According to Romancing Miss Stone, Alvin says that his birthday is nearby and he is turning nine years old (along with his brothers). However, later on in the series, they are stated to be eight years old several times, despite being 4th graders. Alvin's attire has changed many times throughout the franchise, with him wearing the most clothes in the new CGI series and him wearing the least amount of clothes in the live action/CGI films. Alvin is the only character to appear in every episode of the CGI series to date. During the 2000-era, Alvin was, and is, known as the self-appointed "leader" of the group. And, presumably meaning The Alvin Show, he suffered from small "munk" complex and tried to make up for it with his grand schemes and animal magnetism. In the CGI/live-action films, Alvin is shown to have great catching hands in The Squeakquel, he: 1) catches a dodgeball that Ryan threw, knocking him out of the game, and 2) joins the football team and makes a game-winning touchdown catch. In Chipwrecked, he catches a pocket knife with one hand in mid-air. in The Road Chip, he catches a ring with one hand in mid-air with a fully-extended body). His main instruments while performing with The Chipmunks are the electric guitar, the acoustic guitar, the piano, and the harmonica. He has Arachnophobia (a fear of spiders) as revealed in Of Mice and Munks He hates to be alone (Monophobia) as revealed in Grounded Chipmunk Alvin will do anything for fame as revealed in The Legend of Sleeping Brittany Also see Alvin and the Chipmunks The Chipmunks References ↑ Alvin and the Chipmunks History, Web.archive.org, Retrieved 2015-07-16. Everyone's favorite chipmunks - Alvin, Simon and Theodore - are back in this computer-animated version of the classic animated series. The brothers are famous rock stars who tour around the world with their best friends, the Chipettes - Brittany, Jeanette, and Eleanor. The boys' father, Dave, writes their songs and tries to keep them in line - both on and off the stage. Alvin, the leader of the fraternal group, is always coming up with crazy schemes that often get him and his brothers in trouble. Oldest brother Simon is the smart one, using his intelligence to keep the group safe. Theodore may be the youngest of the three brothers, but he frequently comes up with powerful words of wisdom.   Don't miss out on the Alvin and the Chipmunks Games if you love music, skateboarding, and outrageous adventures! After meeting these three adorable protagonists, you'll never be bored again! Can you believe that they were born in 1958? At first, they were just funny voices in a hit by Ross Bagdasarian Senior, a musician and voice actor. Even he was surprised when the first Chipmunk song won three Grammy Awards! Ever since, the three furry brothers have taken the world by storm. Their creator would be very proud! What makes chipmunks worldwide superstars? Read on to find out more about Alvin, Simon, Theodore, and their human parent, David! Chances are you've seen these three lovable heroes before! The Chipmunks are everywhere! They have appeared in movies, animated series, comic books, and, of course, video games. Besides, they have released over 50 albums! Some are platinum records! Can you believe that? These three chipmunks must be very talented! Even if they were created many years ago, the Chipmunks have come very far! Kids and adults from all over Each have a unique personality, likes, dislikes, and hobbies. The best part is that you can experience all of their adventures in this category! Join concerts, record music, play sports, or plan their next mischief! Get ready for a ton of fun! Can three brothers be more different? Let's meet the leader of the trio! Alvin will never go unnoticed, as he is very bold and loves attention. He talks a lot and loves to take on great challenges. Besides, Alvin is also the lead singer and guitarist of the band. Did we mention that he is also great at skateboarding? However, even Alvin has his flaws! He is impulsive and gets in trouble often. Luckily, his brothers and David help him out! Join the chipmunk in the red sweater for one of his naughty plans in the Alvin on Tiptoes game! Can you guess who the genius of the group is? Of course, it's the tall chipmunk with glasses, Simon. His IQ is close to Einstein's! The chipmunk in the blue sweater also has other great qualities. Fans love him for his dry sense of humor and a big heart! Without his help, Alvin would take advantage of Theodore! Theo is the timidest and sweetest member of the group. You'll never meet someone friendlier! The cheerful drummer loves cooking, playing the drums, and the color green. Nevertheless, even Theodore has his faults! He can be very shy and gullible. Therefore, Alvin often uses him for pranks and mischievous plans! Finally, you have to meet the caretaker of these three energetic heroes! Dave, a dark-haired middle-aged man, takes care of the trio, as he is their legal guardian. Don't underestimate him! Being the single parent of the Chipmunks must be the most challenging job in the world. All things considered, Dave does a great job most of the time. However, sometimes even he fails! Play the Mission Handy game to help Alvin, Simon, and Theo escape one of his punishments! There's so much to do in Alvin and the Chipmunks Games! The best part about Alvin and the Chipmunks is that they are always up to something. Given that they are a successful band, they spend most of their time recording music. Sometimes they even go on world tours. Did you know that sometimes they are joined by The Chipettes? They are a group of lady chipmunks that are just as interesting and talented. Can you imagine all the funky music that they play together? You can become part of their musical adventures and experience the thrill of being a star. For instance, help them compose a new song in the Battle of the Bands game! When they're not performing on stage, Alvin, Simon, and Theodore love to play sports! Like many boys, they love soccer, baseball, and even some extreme sports. Are you brave enough to go on a wild race with them? If you can keep your cool, join Alvin for a session of skateboarding! He is a talented rider who can perform many tricks. See for yourself by playing the Skateboard Professional game! No matter how gray life might be, Alvin and the Chipmunks Games will brighten your day! Their funny voices and energetic personalities can cheer up even the moodiest players in just a few minutes. Besides, you'll learn a thing or two about music, friendship, and the importance of a true family! There are currently 23 free online Alvin games on our website. You can play the games on your computer or laptop, using any browser. Some of the games are also available for your tablets or Android and iOS phones. Raised by their human dad, a scrappy young musical chipmunk and his brothers get into mischief and learn plenty of valuable lessons along the way.Starring: Ross Bagdasarian Jr., Janice Karman, Vanessa BagdasarianSelect SeasonSeason 1Season 2Season 3Season 4Season 523m1. Talking Teddy / Principal InterestAlvin and Simon rewire Theodore's talking teddy bear to respond to commands. Alvin doesn't want to go back to school until he meets the new principal.23m2. A Is for Alien / Jeanette EnchantedBelieving that Theodore has been kidnapped by aliens, Alvin and Simon prepare a rescue mission. The Chipmunks create a magical birthday for Jeanette.23m3. Sister Act / Lil' TAfter fighting with Brittany, Eleanor moves in with Alvin and his brothers. When Theodore's rap video becomes a hit, he considers a solo career.23m4. What a Gem / Family SpiritAlvin thinks that a neighbor is responsible for a recent jewel heist. Alvin tries to get out of the annual family day picnic to attend a soccer game.23m5. The App / Don Juan TheodoroAlvin tries to escape from the control of Dave's new parenting app. Theodore gets confusing dating advice from his family members.23m6. Albrittina / Simon for PresidentAlvin takes a personality test and discovers that his true soul mate is Brittany. Simon and Alvin announce rival campaigns for class president.23m7. To Serve and Protect / Kickin' It Old SchoolElected school safety monitor, Simon must make a hard choice about punishing Alvin. Dave takes the Chipmunks on a technology-free camping trip.23m8. Clowning Around / Bully for YouTheodore becomes frozen like a statue when Alvin scares him. Simon constructs a robot bodyguard to protect him from the school bully.23m9. My Sister the Weirdo / Turf WarJeanette wants to give a toast at Brittany's party, but she's too shy. Alvin tries babysitting as a way to make money for a new video game.23m10. Good Luck Mr. Whiskers / Who's Your DaddyTo break a curse, Theodore looks for Miss Croner's missing cat. When Dave gets a cold, Alvin fills in and discovers that it's hard to be a dad.Goofy, Kids, High School, Animals, TV, Nickelodeon, Growing Up, SiblingsRoss Bagdasarian Jr., Janice Karman, Vanessa Bagdasarian, Bettina Kenney, Michael BagdasarianFor your phone, tablet, laptop and TVFor your phone, tablet, laptop and TVImmersive sound (spatial audio)For your phone, tablet, laptop and TV Virtual band and media franchise This article is about the band created in 1958. For other uses, see Alvin and the Chipmunks (disambiguation). This article needs additional citations for verification. Please help improve this article by adding citations to reliable sources. Unsourced material may be challenged and removed.Find sources: "Alvin and the Chipmunks" – news · newspapers · books · scholar · JSTOR (November 2024) (Learn how and when to remove this message) Alvin and the ChipmunksOfficial logoBackground informationOriginCalifornia, United StatesGenresPopchildren'sChristmasYears active1958–presentLabels Liberty Chipmunk Capitol Rhino Sony Columbia SpinoffsThe ChipettesMembersAlvin SevilleSimon SevilleTheodore SevilleWebsiteOfficial website Alvin and the Chipmunks, originally known as David Seville and the Chipmunks and billed for their first two decades as The Chipmunks, are an American animated virtual band and media franchise first created by Ross Bagdasarian for novelty records in 1958.[1] The group consists of three singing animated anthropomorphic chipmunk brothers named Alvin, Simon, and Theodore. The characters have since featured in several television series and films, as well as other media. Bagdasarian provided the group's voices by producing sped-up recordings of his own, a technique pioneered on the successful "Witch Doctor". Later in 1958, Bagdasarian released the similarly engineered "The Chipmunk Song (Christmas Don't Be Late)" for which he came up with the chipmunk characters and their human father, attributing the track to them.[1] The Chipmunks were first depicted in animated form in The Alvin Show (1961).[2] David Seville and the Chipmunks released several more records over the following decade until Bagdasarian's death in 1972.[3] The franchise was revived in 1973, with the characters' voices provided by his son Ross Bagdasarian Jr. and the latter's wife Janice Karman. Through the successful franchise, the Chipmunks have become one of the most successful children's artists of all time. It has garnered two number-one singles on the Billboard Hot 100 and won five Grammy Awards, having four Top 10 albums on the Billboard 200 and three certified platinum albums. "The Chipmunk Song" became one of the best-selling singles of all time at 5 million physical copies sold. In 2019, The Chipmunks received a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.[4] Main article: Witch Doctor (song) In 1958, Ross Bagdasarian Sr. released a novelty song (as David Seville) about being unsuccessful at love until he found a witch doctor who told him how to woo his woman. Seville had bought a tape recorder and he experimented recording himself at different speeds to create a duet between him and the witch doctor. The voice of the witch doctor was in fact Seville's own voice, sung slowly but recorded at half speed on the tape recorder, then played back at normal speed, thereby speeding up the voice into a high-pitched squeaky one.[5][6][7] The song was a hit, holding number one for three weeks in the Billboard Hot 100 chart,[8][9] ranked by Billboard as the No. 4 song for 1958.[10] Bagdasarian re-recorded the song for the second Chipmunks album, Sing Again with the Chipmunks, in 1960. Bagdasarian (again as Seville) recorded a follow-up song, "The Bird on My Head", singing a duet with his own sped-up voice as the bird. It also reached the Top 40, peaking at No. 34.[11] While driving in Sequoia National Park, Bagdasarian saw a chipmunk dash in front of him. That moment inspired him to create his chipmunk characters.[12] He again used the same technique to pitch up the voice to create the chipmunks. Main article: The Chipmunk Song (Christmas Don't Be Late) After the success of "Witch Doctor", Liberty Records asked Bagdasarian to create another successful novelty record. He then came up with three singing chipmunks who were named after executives at Liberty Records: Alvin (named after Al Bennett), Simon (named after Simon Waronker), and Theodore (Ted Keep).[13][14][15][16] The Chipmunks first officially appeared on the scene in a novelty record released in late fall 1958 by Bagdasarian. The song, originally listed on the record label (Liberty F-55168) as "The Chipmunk Song (Christmas Don't Be Late)", featured the singing skills of the chipmunk trio.[17] The novelty record was highly successful, selling 4.5 million copies in seven weeks,[14] eventually selling 12 million copies.[18] The song launched the careers of its chipmunk stars.[19][20][21] The song won three Grammy Awards in 1958[22] and was nominated for Record of the Year.[23][24][25][26] "The Chipmunk Song" appeared on the Chipmunks' debut album, Let's All Sing with the Chipmunks, in 1959, and was repeated on Christmas with the Chipmunks, released in 1962.[27] Main article: The Alvin Show The first television series to feature the characters was The Alvin Show. The series ran from 1961 to 1962[28] and was one of a small number of animated series to be shown in prime time on CBS. It was not a prime-time ratings success and was subsequently canceled after one season. Ratings improved significantly in syndication. The television series was produced by Format Films for Bagdasarian Film Corporation. Although the series was broadcast in black and white, it was produced and later re-run in color.[29][30] This show also introduced David Seville as an animated caricature.[31] Ross Bagdasarian in 1972. He was the creator of the Chipmunks. The final Chipmunks album in the project's original incarnation, The Chipmunks Go to the Movies, was released in 1969. After Bagdasarian's death in 1972, the Chipmunks' careers stalled until 1979, when NBC began airing reruns of The Alvin Show as a mid-season replacement. The following year, Excelsior Records released a new album of contemporary songs performed by the Chipmunks. That album, Chipmunk Punk, featured Bagdasarian's son, Ross Bagdasarian Jr., doing the voices of the characters. That album and the continued reruns of the series proved to be popular enough to warrant further new records as well as new television productions, and on December 14, 1981, the Chipmunks and Seville returned to television in the NBC Christmas special A Chipmunk Christmas, produced by the Bagdasarians with Chuck Jones as a creative consultant. It was accompanied by a soundtrack album. The following year, two more albums were released (Chipmunk Rock and The Chipmunks Go Hollywood). Main article: Alvin and the Chipmunks (1983 TV series) The group's name changed from "the Chipmunks" to "Alvin and the Chipmunks".[32] In 1983, a second animated television series for the group, titled Alvin and the Chipmunks, was produced by Ruby-Spears Productions and released. The first season introduced The Chipettes (three female versions of the Chipmunks). The show's success led to the release of a soundtrack album in 1984, Songs from Our TV Shows. After 1988, the show was renamed just the Chipmunks. In 1985, the Chipmunks, along with the Chipettes, were featured in the live stage show, Alvin and the Chipmunks and the Amazing Computer. In 1987, during the fifth season of the television show, the Chipmunks had their first animated feature film, The Chipmunk Adventure, directed by Janice Karman and Ross Bagdasarian Jr. and released to theaters by The Samuel Goldwyn Company. In the 1988–89 season, the show switched production companies to DIC Entertainment (1988–1990) and Murakami Wolf Swenson (1988). In 1990, the show switched titles again to The Chipmunks Go to the Movies. In 1990, a documentary was produced about the show entitled Alvin and the Chipmunks/Five Decades with the Chipmunks. In that year, the Chipmunks teamed up with other famous cartoon stars for the drug abuse-prevention special Cartoon All-Stars to the Rescue.[33] On January 18, 1991, NBC aired a television special starring the Chipmunks entitled Rockin' Through the Decades. The same year, the band released the album The Chipmunks Rock the House. In 1992, the group released the country album Chipmunks in Low Places. Released on September 29, 1992, the album was certified platinum by the RIAA, becoming the group's first platinum record and making it the Chipmunks' best-selling album followed by a greatest hits release and a reissue of 1981's A Chipmunk Christmas. By 1993, Urban Chipmunk was re-released as a compilation album The Chipmunks' 35th Birthday Party with a double album, called The Chipmunks Sing-Alongs. Their fourth Christmas album, A Very Merry Chipmunk, saw a release in 1994, then When You Wish Upon a Chipmunk in 1995, and Club Chipmunk: The Dance Mixes in 1996 which peaked in the Top 10 on Billboard's Top Kid Audio. In 1996, Universal Studios purchased the rights to the characters. In 1998, Sony Wonder and Columbia Records released The A-Files: Alien Songs and Greatest Hits: Still Squeaky After All These Years on September 21, 1999. The purchase of the rights to the characters by Universal resulted in the Chipmunks' 1999 reappearance, in the form of the direct-to-video movie Alvin and the Chipmunks Meet Frankenstein, released on September 28, 1999. Five new songs were composed for the film and were made available via a soundtrack released by MCA Records. Later that year, The Chipmunks' Greatest Christmas Hits was released. The movie was successful enough to spark interest in a sequel, and in 2000, Alvin and the Chipmunks Meet the Wolfman appeared. Three new songs were composed for the film, that were also made available on a soundtrack by MCA. Both movies featured the original cast of the second series reprising their roles as the tone was very similar to the series. Universal lost the rights to the characters in 2002 due to a breach of contract with Bagdasarian Productions.[34][35] Bus promoting Alvin and the Chipmunks: The Road Chip in London On September 17, 2004, Fox 2000 Pictures, Regency Enterprises, and Bagdasarian Productions announced a live-action animated film starring Alvin and the Chipmunks.[36] Tim Hill[37] directed the 2007 adaption Alvin and the Chipmunks, with voices by Justin Long, Matthew Gray Gubler, and Jesse McCartney. Further live-action installments were The Squeakquel (2009), Chipwrecked (2011), and The Road Chip (2015). The projects have achieved commercial success, grossing over a billion dollars collectively.[38][39] Accolades received include five Grammy awards, an American Music Award, a Golden Reel Award, three Kids' Choice Awards, and Emmy nominations.[citation needed] A television series, Alvinnn!!! and the Chipmunks was created by Janice Karman and produced by Bagdasarian Productions and Technicolor Animation Productions.[40][41] Main article: David Seville Dave Seville is the adoptive father, manager, and caretaker of Alvin, Simon, and Theodore in the franchise. Created by Ross Bagdasarian Sr. in 1958, Dave is portrayed as a compassionate yet often exasperated figure, trying to balance his career as a songwriter with raising the mischievous Chipmunks. His iconic catchphrase, "ALVIN!", shouted in frustration at Alvin's antics, has become a signature element of the franchise. In the live-action/CGI films, Dave is portrayed by Jason Lee,[42] appearing as a loving but strict father figure who helps guide the Chipmunks through their music career. In the 1980s media Alvin, Simon, and Theodore are about eight to nine years old and triplets, as they celebrate their birthday together in "A Chipmunk Reunion" (Alvin stating to be born five minutes before Simon). The 1983 series revealed that the boys' mother, Vinnie, is a similarly anthropomorphic chipmunk living in a nearby forest. One year a particularly harsh winter had caused a nut shortage. Vinnie realized that her newborn children would likely not survive the winter, so she anonymously left them on Dave's doorstep. She returned briefly to see what happened years later. Dave and the boys were unaware of their origins until they asked him during an argument over the exact date of their birthday. Vinnie had never revealed herself to him, but the boys investigated and eventually tracked her down. While never mentioned, in the CGI movies and 2015 series, the chipmunks are no longer triplets and celebrate different birthdays; but seem to be around the same school age. In the 2007 feature film, the chipmunks lived in a tree, fending for themselves as their parents had taken off to join a hippie commune and had problems gathering nuts for the winter. Their tree is cut down and carted off to grace the entrance lobby of a city office building, with them in it. They eventually wind up in Dave's home, where they wreak havoc. After being thrown out, Dave notices how well they can sing, making them famous. They eventually win his heart. Ian Hawke is a recurring character in the Alvin and the Chipmunks franchise's live-action adaptations, first appearing in the 2007 live-action/CGI film. Main article: The Chipettes The Chipettes are a female counterpart to the Chipmunks, introduced in the Alvin and the Chipmunks franchise as their singing rivals and later close friends. Consisting of Brittany, Jeanette, and Eleanor, the trio is known for their distinctive personalities and vocal talents. They first appeared in the 1983 animated series Alvin and the Chipmunks, and were later featured in various films and media adaptations. In the live-action/CGI film series, the Chipettes make their debut in Alvin and the Chipmunks: The Squeakquel (2009) as performers managed by Ian Hawke, who attempts to use them to overshadow the Chipmunks. The Chipettes eventually break free from Ian's control and join forces with the Chipmunks, becoming both their romantic interests and musical collaborators. Throughout the franchise, they remain popular characters, often involved in comedic and musical adventures alongside the Chipmunks. This section does not cite any sources. Please help improve this section by adding citations to reliable sources. Unsourced material may be challenged and removed. (May 2025) (Learn how and when to remove this message) Alvin Seville – lead and backing vocals Simon Seville – lead and backing vocals Theodore Seville – lead and backing vocals The Chipmunks' voices were recorded at half the normal tape speed on audiotape by voice talent (on the 1960s records, generally Ross Bagdasarian's own voice overdubbed three times, on the post-1980s records, studio singers) talking or singing at half the normal speaking rate. When the tape was played back at normal speed, they would sound a full octave higher in pitch, at normal tempo. The use of this technique with the Chipmunks linked this technique to them, with the term chipmunk-voiced entering the American vernacular to describe any artificially high-pitched voice. Bagdasarian recorded vocals and music at different speeds to combine properly on his recording. Guitarist Les Paul said he visited Bagdasarian's studio in 1958 and helped with the recording.[43] The early Hip hop production style of artist Kanye West involved sped-up, high-pitch vocal samples from classic Soul music records incorporated with his own (additional) instrumentation, a style that was to become known as chipmunk soul.[44][45] Due in part to the acclaim of his debut album The College Dropout, such sampling techniques subsequently became much copied by myriad of other hip-hop producers.[46] The Chipmunks made their television debut on The Ed Sullivan Show on December 13, 1959, when they performed "The Chipmunk Song". They were portrayed by puppets. In 1968, the Chipmunks appeared in an Italian commercial TV program Carosello, in their sponsorship of Prealpi, a cheese-maker in Varese, Italy. The Chipmunks appeared in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade twice, in 1983 and 1986. At the 1983 parade, they performed "Tomorrow" from the musical Annie. In 1986, they performed "The Girls of Rock and Roll" with The Chipettes as a way to promote their film, The Chipmunk Adventure, which was released six months later. The Chipmunks performed with Canned Heat on the band's interpretation of "The Chipmunk Song", which is sufficiently derivative of the Chipmunks' 1958 hit that Ross Bagdasarian Sr. gets sole writing credit. It was later featured as the B-side of Canned Heat's single "Christmas Blues", released in late 2009.[47] The Chipmunks made a guest appearance on Xuxa in 1993, where they performed "Country Pride" from their album, Chipmunks in Low Places. The Chipmunks appeared on the FOX NFL Sunday intro on December 20, 2009, alongside Digger, the mascot for NASCAR on Fox. The Chipmunks, portrayed as costumed characters, made an appearance at a preseason game at Dodger Stadium on April 3, 2010, between the Los Angeles Dodgers and Los Angeles Angels. The group performed "America the Beautiful" with a group of children prior to the game. Simon's costume included a Dodgers jersey and a wig similar to then-Dodgers player Manny Ramirez's signature long braids. Ross Bagdasarian Jr. made the opening ceremonial pitch for the game.[48] The Chipmunks made multiple appearances on ads for food safety to help kids learn safe food practices. Main article: Alvin and the Chipmunks discography Evergreen Concepts produced merchandise based on the property.[49] The Chipmunks (1990) – platforms: Tiger Electronic Game. Alvin and the Chipmunks (2007) – platforms: Nintendo DS, Wii, PlayStation 2 and Microsoft Windows. Alvin and the Chipmunks: The Squeakquel (2009) – platforms: Nintendo DS and Wii. Alvin and the Chipmunks: Chipwrecked (2011) – arranger: Eleonora Rossin - platforms: Nintendo DS, Wii and Xbox 360. 1984:The Chipmunks and the Magic Camera (The Chipmunks) 1985: Alvin and the Chipmunks and the Amazing Computer (The Chipmunks and the Chipettes) 2008: Get Munk'd Tour (The Chipmunks) 2015: Alvin and the Chipmunks: The Musical (The Chipmunks and the Chipettes)[50] 1959, won three Grammy Awards for Best Recording for Children,[51] Best Comedy Performance[51] and Best Engineered Record –Non-Classical for the song "The Chipmunk Song"[52][53] (it was also nominated for Record of the Year, but did not win).[54] 1960, won a Grammy Award for Best Engineered Recording -Non-Classical for the song "Alvin's Harmonica." 1961, won a Grammy Award for Best Album for Children for the album Let's All Sing with the Chipmunks (it was also nominated for Best Engineered Record -Non-Classical). The song "Alvin for President" was also nominated for both Best Comedy Performance –Musical and Best Engineered Record –Novelty, making two nominations in the latter category. 1962, was nominated again for a Grammy Award for Best Engineered Record –Novelty for the television tie-in album The Alvin Show. 1963, was nominated again for Grammy Awards for both Best Album for Children and Best Engineered Record –Novelty for the album The Chipmunk Songbook. 1966, was nominated for a Grammy Award for Best Recording for Children for the song "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious". 1985, was nominated for an Emmy Award in the category "Outstanding Animated Program (Daytime)." 1987, the second television series was nominated for a Young Artist Award in the category "Exceptional Family Animation Series or Specials." 1987, was nominated for an Emmy Award in the category "Outstanding Animated Program (Daytime)." 1988, was nominated for an Emmy Award in the category "Outstanding Animated Program (Daytime)." 1988, was nominated for a Young Artist Award in the category "Best Motion Picture –Animation" for the movie The Chipmunk Adventure. 2000, won the Golden Reel Award in the category "Best Sound Editing –Direct to Video – Sound Editorial" for the movie Alvin and the Chipmunks Meet Frankenstein. 2008, Jason Lee won the Kids' Choice Awards in the category "Favorite Movie" for the movie Alvin and the Chipmunks.[55] 2008, the 2007 Alvin and the Chipmunks soundtrack won the American Music Award for "Best Movie Soundtrack."[56][57] 2010, Alvin and the Chipmunks: The Squeakquel won the Kids' Choice Awards in the category "Favorite Movie."[58] 2012, Alvin and the Chipmunks: Chipwrecked won the 2012 Kids' Choice Awards in the category "Favorite Movie."[59] 2019, earned a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.[60] Arnold, Mark (2019). Aaaaalllvvviiinnn!!!: The Story of Ross Bagdasarian, Sr., Liberty Records, Format Films and The Alvin Show. BearManor Media. ISBN 9781629334325. Chipmunk soul ^ a b Huver, Scott (March 14, 2019). "How Alvin and the Chipmunks Creator Ross Bagdasarian Sr. Launched an Empire on a Novelty Song". Variety. Retrieved August 16, 2025. ^ The Alvin Show (Animation, Adventure, Family), Ross Bagdasarian, Shepard Menken, June Foray, Bagdasarian Film Corporation, Format Films, Viacom Enterprises, October 4, 1961, retrieved August 16, 2025{{citation}}: CS1 maint: others (link) ^ armprelacy (January 16, 2020). "Death of Ross Bagdasarian (January 16, 1972)". Armenian Prelacy. Retrieved August 16, 2025. ^ "Alvin & the Chipmunks". July 27, 2021. Retrieved November 18, 2024. ^ Kelly, Michael Bryan (1993). Liberty Records: A History of the Recording Company and Its Stars, 1955-1971. McFarland. p. 44. ISBN 9780899507408. ^ Bronson, Fred (1997). The Billboard Book of Number One Hits. Billboard Books. p. 36. ISBN 9780823076413. ^ The Oxford Handbook of Music and Virtuality. Oxford University Press. 2016. p. 132. ISBN 9780199321285. ^ "Chipmunk: Lighting Can Strike Twice". Billboard. December 1, 1958. p. 11. ^ Ripani, Richard J. (2009). The New Blue Music: Changes in Rhythm & Blues, 1950–1999. University Press of Mississippi. ISBN 9781496801289. ^ "Number One Song of the Year: 1946–2014". Bob Borst's Home of Pop Culture. March 9, 2023. ^ "The Bird on My Head by David Seville". Themadmusicarchive.com. Archived from the original on January 17, 2010. Retrieved December 26, 2011. ^ Clarely, Kathey (May 24, 1987). "Dashing Park Rodent was the Inspiration for Chipmunks". The Fresno Bee. 'He couldn't figure out whether to use worms or elephants or whatever,' said Ross Bagdasarian Jr., who took over the chipmunk business from his father. 'Suddenly, as he was driving through the sequoias [at Sequoia National Park], a chipmunk dashed out on the road and dared him to pass. Dad fell out of the car laughing and the Chipmunks were born.' ^ Pantera, Gabrielle (September 29, 2009). "DVD: Alvin and the Chipmunks TV Shows". Hollywood Today. Archived from the original on June 12, 2010. Retrieved April 15, 2011. ^ a b "ALVIN AND THE CHIPMUNKS – A SIX DECADE SUCCESS STORY" (PDF). Los Angeles City Council. Retrieved November 20, 2024. ^ Korkis, Jim (April 5, 2013). "Animation Anecdotes #104". Cartoon Research. Retrieved December 19, 2021. ^ "Canned Heat and The Chipmunks: A Musical Christmas Story". UNREMEMBERED. December 2, 2016. Retrieved November 20, 2024. ^ ""The Chipmunk Song" Turns 60: Secrets of a Holiday Novelty Smash". The Hollywood Reporter. December 21, 2018. Retrieved October 28, 2024. ^ Tyler, Don (2008). Music of the postwar era. Greenwood Press. pp. 99–100. ISBN 9780313341915. ^ "How 'The Chipmunk Song' became an unlikely Christmas megahit". The Washington Post. Retrieved October 28, 2024. ^ "The Number Ones: The Chipmunks & David Seville's "The Chipmunk Song (Christmas Don't be Late)"". January 25, 2018. Retrieved October 28, 2024. ^ "HOLIDAY FLASHBACK: 'The Chipmunk Song (Christmas Don't Be Late)'". December 2015. Retrieved October 28, 2024. ^ O'Neil, Tom (May 4, 2009). "Today in 1959: First Grammy Awards handed out". Los Angeles Times. Retrieved November 29, 2009.[permanent dead link] ^ "1958 Grammy Winners". Recording Academy. Retrieved May 20, 2023. ^ "Justice For "The Chipmunk Song": 10 Reasons It Will Always Be A Christmas Classic | GRAMMY.com". grammy.com. Retrieved May 23, 2025. ^ "How Much Does the Chipmunks' Christmas Song Earn Every Year?". Billboard. Retrieved October 28, 2024. ^ "Sinatra To The Chipmunks: 7 Things To Know About The 1st GRAMMY Awards". Grammy Awards. Retrieved November 20, 2024. ^ "Justice For "The Chipmunk Song": 10 Reasons It Will Always Be A Christmas Classic". Grammy Awards. Retrieved November 20, 2024. ^ Perlmutter, David (2018). The Encyclopedia of American Animated Television Shows. Rowman & Littlefield. p. 24. ISBN 978-1538103739. ^ Woolery, George W. (1983). Children's Television: The First Thirty-Five Years, 1946–1981. Scarecrow Press. pp. 14–15. ISBN 0-8108-1557-5. Retrieved March 14, 2020. ^ Paietta, Ann; Kauppila, Jean (1994). Animals on Screen and Radio: An Annotated Sourcebook. Scarecrow Press. p. 294. ISBN 9780810829398. ^ Erickson, Hal (2005). Television Cartoon Shows: An Illustrated Encyclopedia, 1949 Through 2003 (2nd ed.). McFarland & Co. pp. 75–78. ISBN 978-1476665993. ^ "Alvin and the Chipmunks Celebrate Holidays On Stage". Sun Sentinel. Archived from the original on January 4, 2014. Retrieved October 23, 2010. ^ "Recover from Your 4/20 Hangover by Rewatching 'Cartoon All-Stars to the Rescue'". April 21, 2016. Archived from the original on April 15, 2023. Retrieved April 15, 2023. ^ "Santa Maria Times from Santa Maria, California". Newspapers.com. June 19, 1997. Retrieved April 10, 2024. ^ "Family of Chipmunks' Originator Files Suit Against Universal Studios". Los Angeles Times. September 12, 2000. Retrieved April 10, 2024. ^ Brodesser, Claude (September 14, 2004). "'Alvin' to squeak again". Variety. Retrieved December 21, 2019. ^ LaPorte, Nicole (January 24, 2007). "Hill to direct 'Chipmunks'". Variety. Retrieved December 21, 2019. ^ "How Much Does the Chipmunks' Christmas Song Earn Every Year?". Billboard. Retrieved October 11, 2024. ^ "Alvin and the Chipmunks Franchise Box Office History". The Numbers. Retrieved October 11, 2024. ^ Guider, Elizabeth (October 5, 2013). "'Alvin and the Chipmunks': PGS Entertainment Takes Global Rights to New TV Series". The Hollywood Reporter. Retrieved June 12, 2022. ^ Keslassy, Elsa (October 5, 2012). "Genao to revives 'Chipmunks,' 'Xiaolin'". Variety. Retrieved June 12, 2022. ^ Radish, Christina (December 13, 2011). "Jason Lee ALVIN AND THE CHIPMUNKS: CHIPWRECKED Interview". Collider. Retrieved October 3, 2018. ^ Guitar Buyer, September 2008 ^ Burrell, Ian (September 22, 2007). "Kanye West: King of Rap". The Independent. UK. Archived from the original on November 9, 2012. Retrieved April 26, 2008. ^ Barthel, Mike (October 15, 2010). "Understanding Kanye: Sweet, Sweet Robot Fantasy, Baby". The Awl. David Cho. Archived from the original on November 19, 2010. Retrieved October 15, 2010. ^ Empire, Kitty (August 27, 2005). "West ends the wait". The Observer. ISSN 0029-7712. Retrieved November 25, 2023. ^ "Canned Heat: The Official Band Biography". Canned Heat. Archived from the original on May 19, 2013. Retrieved May 2, 2012. ^ "Chipmunks Go Dodger Blu". April 5, 2010. Retrieved November 21, 2024. ^ "Chipmunks get merchandise push". Playthings. 2003. Archived from the original on January 2, 2004. Retrieved June 27, 2024. ^ "Alvin and the Chipmunks: Live on Stage!". Archived from the original on June 25, 2015. Retrieved June 25, 2015. Alvin and the Chipmunks: Live On Stage. alvinandthechipmunkslive.com. Retrieved 23 June 2015. ^ a b "Grammy Awards 1959 (May)". Grammy. Archived from the original on April 30, 2019. Retrieved February 17, 2016. ^ Dornbrook, Don (May 24, 1959). "And Now the Grammy Awards". The Milwaukee Journal. Archived from the original on November 18, 2015. Retrieved May 1, 2011. ^ "1958 Grammy Winners". Grammy.com. Retrieved May 29, 2022. ^ "Grammy Awards 1959 (May)". Awards & Shows. ^ "Nickelodeon Kids' Choice Awards 2008 Winners Press Release". NickALive!. March 31, 2008. Retrieved October 9, 2024. ^ "2008 American Music Awards Winners". New York Daily News. Associated Press. November 24, 2008. Archived from the original on May 20, 2013. Retrieved November 21, 2017. ^ Watson, Margeaux (October 14, 2008). "2008 American Music Awards nominees announced". Entertainment Weekly. Archived from the original on December 7, 2018. Retrieved November 28, 2017. ^ "In Full: Kids' Choice 2010 - Winners". Digital Spy. March 29, 2010. Archived from the original on October 4, 2022. Retrieved January 15, 2023. ^ "'Kids Choice Awards': And the winners are..." Entertainment Weekly's EW.com. ^ "Alvin and the Chipmunks Receive Hollywood Walk of Fame Star". NBC Los Angeles. March 14, 2019. Retrieved June 18, 2020. Wikimedia Commons has media related to Alvin and the Chipmunks. Chipmunks.com, Bagdasarian Productions' official site Alvin and the Chipmunks: Live on Stage!, archived from the original on June 25, 2015 Cinema.ch Trailer "The History of the Chipmunks", Animation.Archive.org Alvin and the Chipmunks" at Don Markstein's Toonopedia. Archived from the original on April 4, 2012. Alvin and the Chipmunks discography at Discogs Alvin and the Chipmunks at IMDb Alvin and the Chipmunks on iTunes Retrieved from "

- pasword gta ps 2 polisi takut
- https://assets-global.website-files.com/68375a57fb343a40bffa1077/68c8922e6843f4d623e7e9a7_bakor.pdf
- kayuwe
- catia assembly design projects pdf
- hixomuru
- https://assets.website-files.com/683e5c31ae7d171bae3e7822/68c96a661866b0f38f2a51ba_viwusukivesufiwinuro.pdf
- glacier bay faucet support